

Harrison grads say goodbye

... Our time has now come to say goodbye.
And leave our home at Harrison High.

The times we've had are kept deep in our heart.

Although we're moving on, we'll never part.

We Are Forever The Class of 1991!

— from Class Motto by Jill Rosenthal

HARRISON graduates left their high school careers to the strains of the Harrison High Symphony Band and with the best wishes of classmates and community leaders.

Graduation ceremonies for the 189-member class were held Sunday, June 9, at Cobo Center in downtown Detroit.

The Harrison High Choir and senior band members performed and class president Carrie Dean offered remarks on behalf of her class. Principal Clayton Graham presented the class, board president Susan Renneis offered her parting remarks.

Superintendent Mike Flanagan talked about the diversity in the student body by naming students from different ethnic backgrounds. Flanagan left the class of '91 with two thoughts: he urged them to vote, beginning with Monday's school board election and, he also asked them to consider teaching.

Trustees Jack Inch and Helen Ditzio presented diplomas with assistant principal Dave Poelke calling the class names.

Harrison's class song was "For Just Moment" from the movie "St. Elmo's Fire." The class colors were red, white and blue; and the class flower the yellow rose.

Harrison graduates celebrate their special day, remembering their four years together at the Farmington Hills school. The Observer photographer got a boost seven feet into the air from grads Blazo Sarcevic and Jason Middlemiss to take this picture.
