LA FETE AU JARDIN — More than 800 guests strolled the rolling grounds of the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center in Farmington Hills. The center operated by the Daughters of St. Vincent De Paul, serves more than 250 children and their families. It provides care and treatment to abused and neglected children and their families, and also to young single parents and their infants. Guests feasted on foods from more than 50 local restaurants.

Honorary chairs Edward and Jette Joana of West Bloomfield have been involved with this project for four years. Co-chairs Thomas Griesdorn of Farmington Hills and John and Linda Todd of Birmingham helped coordinate the garden feast. Restaurants receiving the awards for best presentation were Traffic Jam and Snug, the Whitney and Opus One.

Committee members included Chuck and Terry Daly, George and Rita George, Thomas and Carol George, James and Selma Joana, James and Mary Lark, Victor and Michelle Saroki.

Others spotted in the crowd included Neal and Toby Stele of Southfield, Tim Ryan (advisory board) and Ralph and Patti Miesel of Farmington Hills.
