Harbor Springs

William Bugera of Bloomfield Hills, whose background is 30 years experience in the corporate world, now describes himself as "restaurant handyman, coach and wine steward" for the New York Restaurant in Harbor Springs. Bugera's son Matt became chef/owner of the restaurant last June. His wife Kim is chef-proprietor of the Harbor Springs Gourmet, which opened in 1989 and is next door to the restaurant.

The New York Restaurant is in a casual setting overlooking the waterfront. Called "a Northern Michigan Bistro," it serves a variety of classic and modern dishes from around the world. Matt Bugera was chef/owner of the Harbor Springs Gourmet before he acquired the New York Restaurant last summer. The Harbor Springs Gourmet specializes in freshly prepared contemporary foods to carry out, as well as baked goods, specialty food items, beers, wines and catering.

His goal is to establish the restaurant as a year-round destination, not just to attract guests for the summer season.

If Quality Time Scares You, Do What The Munsters Do.

With the family hour* at an all-time premium and entertainment costs equally high, the Munsters used to be downright afraid to spend an afternoon together. But that was before they got a family membership pass to Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

Now, whenever the spirit moves them, they come out for some family fun. They're not scared by the size of the milking cows at Firestone Farm, although they're always shocked by the vast collection of unusual historical items in the museum. In fact, they're usually aghast that the time passes so quickly.

If you're alarmed by the cost of having a good time with your family you should do what the Munsters do — visit Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village and get a family membership pass. Or call (313) 271-1620
