Fashion Extravaganza

A lot of black and white with emphasis on accessories such as belts and earrings from Eleganza (at left) and the newest short length for the season from Your Image. (above) were part of the Leah Marke Fashion Extravaganza produced for Beth Shalom Sisterhood's 35th anniversary. Lynn Rich, a Farmington Hills resident, was one of the honorees of the anniversary celebration.

MILITARY ORDER OF COOTIE, Motor City 22 Auxiliary, returned from the state convention in Midland with several awards.

Member Irene Rodebaugh received the award "Chaplain of the Year," for those in her membership category, and then for over all of the 23 auxiliaries in Michigan. She also received first place for the Publicity Book she put together for the local auxiliary.

President Alleen Volson took second place for President of the Year. She received a citation for membership and another for doubling the quota of gifts sent to those in Veterans' Hospitals.

The auxiliary took first place for their Supreme President Special Project.

Lois McGow and Rodebaugh received pins for their volunteer hospital work.

All of the first place winners will go to the national convention this August, in New Orleans, La.

Those attending the state convention from the local auxiliary were Rose Hamilton, Mae Lippe, June Goulette, Lillian Denton, McGow, Volson and Rodebaugh.

New pastor welcomed

The congregation of First United Methodist Church of Farmington will welcome its new pastor Sunday, June 23. Judith Craig, bishop of the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church, has appointed the Rev. Edward L. Duncan to fill the pulpit vacated by the Rev. Arthur Spafford, who retired after 42 years in the parish ministry. He has been pastor for the First United Methodist Church of Farmington the past eight years.

Duncan comes to Farmington from Royal Oak First United Methodist Church where he has served as senior pastor for four years. Since he has been in Michigan he has served churches in Troy, Oxford and Lake Orion. He is the former editor of the award-winning church publication, "The Michigan Christian Advocate."

Duncan and his wife will reside with their son Bruce in the church parsonage on Cass Avenue in

Rev. Edward Duncan

Farmington. He will preach his first sermon at 10 a.m. Sunday in the church on Grand River and Warner.
