Swearing in

Newly appointed Farmington public safety reserve officer Kenneth Rajna was sworn to duty recently, by city clerk Josephine Bushey, following 100 hours of study at the Oakland Police Reserve Officer Academy. Also, he spent eight hours on the range qualifying on the department's issue weapon, a .357 Magnum revolver and 12-gauge shotgun. The 17-year resident of Farmington Hills is a sales representative with Century 21-Hartford. He is married and has two children.

Mud Mania to highlight Kids Day

Lots of fun, and lots of mud, are in store for youngsters Friday during Kids Day at the sixth annual Star Spangled Southfield Festival.

Mud Mania takes over the front lawn of the Southfield Civic Center where kids ages 7-14 are invited to dive, slide and jump into mud pits while trying to complete the 10-obstacle course in the fastest time. The top three finishers in each age group will receive Mud Mania T-shirts donated by the Resource, Recovery and Recycling Authority of Southwest Oakland County.

Competition begins at 10 a.m. for 7-9 year olds, at 10:30 a.m. for 9-11 year olds and at 11 a.m. for 12-14 year olds. Shoes and shirts must be worn to participate, and hoses will be provided for clean-up after the race.

Registration forms must be filled out by a parent or guardian and are available at the Southfield Parks and Recreation front desk in the Civic Center, 10 1/2 Mile and Evergreen.

Other free events on Kids Day include a pet show, canine Frisbee disc competition, frog-jumping contest and petting zoo. The Civic Center is on Evergreen at Civic Center Drive.

police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

● PARK TROUBLES

Two Redford Township residents face charges after they were seen just before 7 p.m. Sunday driving a car on the grass at the south end of Olde Town Park at Waldron and Independence, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

The residents, a 15-year-old youth, and a 19-year-old man, were seen driving the car and ripping up 25 feet of grass in the park before the two, plus a female passenger, got out and took down a volleyball net.

They got back in the car and while squealing the car tires, sped from the park, south of Waldron.

The car was stopped at Grand River and Fox. When the car was stopped, one of the occupants dumped out a red plastic cup. Tests determined the cup contained beer. Police also found a marijuana pipe in the car.

The 15-year-old was charged with being in a car with open intoxicants. The 19-year-old was charged with reckless driving, open intoxicants in a motor vehicle and possession of narcotic paraphernalia.

The man admitted to assaulting his 21-year-old sister after being locked out of the house shortly after 2:30 a.m., according to a Farmington Department of Public Safety report.

Matthew Lee Wegzyn, 28, pleaded guilty to assault and battery before 47th District Court Magistrate Dennis Phenoxy and was fined $100 and $25 in court costs.
