

1991 U. S. SENIOR OPEN - OAKLAND HILLS

Following are some facts regarding the 12th U. S. Senior Open Championship.

When: July 22-24 practice rounds; July 25-28 championship rounds.

Where: Oakland Hills Country Club, off Maple Road between Lahser and Telegraph roads.

Who: Entries are open to professionals and amateurs age 50 and older. Amateurs must have a United States Golf Association Handicap Index of not more than 5.4.

Top Players: Arnold Palmer, 1981 Senior Open winner at Oakland Hills; Lee Trevino, defending Senior Open champion; Jack Nicklaus, 1990 U. S. Senior Open runner-up; Gary Player, 1987-88 U. S. Senior Open champion.

Exempt Players: Lee Trevino, Arnold Palmer, Miller Barber, Dale Douglass, Gary Player, Orville Moody, Jack Fleck, Lou Graham, Jack Nicklaus, Bob Charles, Doug Ford, Tommy Aaron, Gay Brewer, Charles Coody, Jackie Cummings, Bo Williams and Clarence Moore, Roberto DeVicenzo (1980 U. S. Senior Open champion) and Billy Casper (1983 U. S. Senior Open champion) are the only former winners who have not entered.

Oldest Champion: Roberto DeVicenzo (1980 at Winged Foot Country Club), 57 years, two months and 15 days.

Prize Money: $600,000 purse; $110,000 to the winner and $55,000 to the runner-up. The next three places win $33,137, $24,182 and $19,026, respectively.

1991 Course: Oakland Hills Country Club South Course, par 70, 6,718 yards. Par out: 35, Par in: 35. Course includes four par 3s; 12 par 4s; two par 5s.

Tickets: $15 daily for practice rounds Monday through Wednesday; $25 daily for championship rounds Thursday through Sunday. Tickets available at Oakland Hills pro shop; Carl's Golfland on Telegraph Road north of Square Lake Road; all eight of Nevada Bob's discount golf shops located in Southfield, Royal Oak, Rochester, Sterling Heights, Dearborn, Waterford, Farmington and Ann Arbor. For further ticket information, call 645-1991.

Seating: More than 6,000 bleacher seats will be available at 10 of the 18 holes. Following is the hole-by-hole breakdown: No. 3, 240 seats; No. 5, 280; No. 9, 240; No. 10, 400; No. 12, 400; No. 13, 280; No. 15, 320; No. 16, 1,040; No. 17, 400; No. 18, 2,500.

Honorary Chairman: Ben Hogan. Regarded by many as the greatest golfer of all time, Hogan won the 1951 U. S. Open at the newly redesigned Oakland Hills South Course. After that victory Hogan gave Oakland Hills its signature nickname of "The Monster."

Key:

