Top wheeler cheered

Tom Ottenwess of Grandville took the quadrupole open division in 2:51.1, edging Scott McDonough of Livonia, who clocked 2:48.0. Pat Ford of Linden topped the women wheelers with a time of 31:21.

SEVERAL WHEELERS stole hearts as they finished, among them Farmington's Donna Cruz.

For nearly three months, Cruz, a veteran of the United Cerebral Palsy Olympics, trained for her first road race with her uncle and coach John Cruz of Plymouth Township.

A roar went up as the crowd spotted Cruz nearing the finish, kicking and gliding backwards in her wheelchair. The cheers spurred her to push even harder, and a determined Cruz breezed through the finish in 1:13, breaking a smile to beat the band, Cruz later joined runners and wheelers dancing the night away in her chair.

Another wheeler — Jim Keskeny of Pinckney — also completed his first five-mile. Keskeny has multiple sclerosis, and twice has competed in the Paralympic Marathon with the aid of able-bodied runners who took turns pushing him.

This time, members of the People Who Run Downtown pushed the former Birmingham resident until the last quarter-mile, where Keskeny took over and wheeled in under his own power in 45:46.

Kelly tosses no-hitter

Mary Joe Kelly pitched a no-hitter Thursday as the Livonia Spitfires swept a softball double-header from the Farmington Hills Diamonds in the Commercial Carpet Corporation League, 10-0 and 13-3.

Kelly was the winning pitcher in both games but no-hitter the Diamonds in the first, striking out 10 and walking four.

Amy Vocum hit a two-run homer and Molly Bourgouls had two hits and one RBI for the Spitfires (6-0) in the opener.

Kelly allowed only three hits in the second game, striking out eight and walking two. Erin Kurtin had an RBI double and Ann Zazulo an RBI single.

Karen Seremet, the losing pitcher in the first game despite giving up just four hits, and Jennifer Holtzman tied and scored a run in the nightcap for the Diamonds (1-6).

Krista Miller tossed a one-hitter in the first game as the Farmington Hills Majestics swept a pair from the Livonia Lasers, 13-0 and 15-3. Miller struck out 10 and Ariana Poniatowski had two hits and two RBIs.

Erin Wiehe was 2-for-2 with three RBIs in the second game, and Heather Jonna was the winning pitcher.

The Livonia Commanders won two games from the Salem Slugs, 6-4 and 18-3. Tracy McManaron and Niki Italia were the winning pitchers.

Rachel Allor had three hits in each game, and Italia helped her cause with three in the nightcap. Lori Shingledecker and Gayle Richardson also had three hits apiece in the second game, Beth Bilo and April Switala two each in the first.

Magic gets 3rd in state

The Mid-America Magic travel softball team finished third in the USSA girls 15-and-under tournament in Sterling Heights July 20-21.

The Magic was organized as a developmental team for the state championship Mid-America Mustangs and consists of 15 of the top 13-year-old players in the area.

The Magic has performed beyond expectations while competing in an under-18 league, a women's Class D league at Canton Softball Center and all of the world qualifying USSSA sanctioned tournaments.

In the state tournament, the Magic scored more runs (4) against the Mustangs than all other teams combined.

Magic highlights included a grand slam by Stephanie Smith, a game-winning, three-run homer by Heidi Wahl, a one-hitter by pitcher Amy Geary, 3-for-3 hitting with two triples in one game by Robin Nease, and a .615 batting average by Sue Huber.

The Magic roster consists of Kelly Albus, Carole Best, Hub
