New Singing Group Set For Bookings

HOUGHTON Mark Plichta and John Quinn of Livonia provide two of the 34 enthusiastic voices of the Varsity Singers, the newest music group at Michigan Technological University.

The group sings in the style of the New Christy Minstrels and the Young Americans, featuring current popular and folk music and standards.

Plichta, a freshman majoring in general engineering, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Plichta. Quinn, who is also a freshman in general engineering, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Quinn.

For their performances, the boys are dressed in white bellbottoms and bright blue shirts. The girls wear blue dresses with bright scarves. Guitars, rhythm instruments, the piano and drums are used for the accompaniment.

MARK PLICHTA

JOHN QUINN

AIRPORT—Star-studded cast in problems of running a midwestern airport, includes blizzard and suicidal bombers. (G, R-3).

BUTCH CASSIDY AND THE SUNDANCE KID—Paul Newman plays the legendary Butch Cassidy in a humorous account of his exploits. (GP, A-3).

THE LITTLE BIG MAN—Is the story of the old West as told by a survivor of Custer's Last Stand. Dustin Hoffman plays the 121-year-old narrator. (GP, A-3).

LOVE STORY—Alli MacGraw and Ryan O'Neal star in a sad story of young love, based on Erich Segal's best-seller. A real tear-jerker. (GP, A-3).

THE OWL AND THE PUSSYCAT—Barbra Streisand doesn't sing a note. She's an aspiring actress who augments her income with "clients." (R, B).

RYAN'S DAUGHTER—Photographic effects help a basically weak plot. Irish Rosy Ryan is looking for "something more." (GP, A-3).

SONG OF NORWAY—Tells the story of the life of Edward Grieg. The plot is weak, but the scenery is spectacular. (G, A-1).

WHERE'S POPPA?—In this tasteless black comedy about the aged, George Segal plays a man whose mother has a stranglehold on him. (R, B).

GOIN' DOWN THE ROAD—A Canadian film of what happens to two Nova Scotians in the big city, has honesty if for surprises. (R, A-3).

THE LAST VALLEY—With scenes of slaughter and cruelty in the Thirty Years War, it draws historical parallels for our time. Omar Sharif stars. (GP, A-3).

PHANTOM TOLBOOTH—A weekend matinee parents will love. Butch Patrick learns to use time wisely and work in school through a dream session with cartoons. (G, A-1).

Original Art Works To Be Discussed

BIRMINGHAM Have you ever wondered how a critic would view the art works in your collection? Have you thought of obtaining a professional opinion on a work you did yourself?

Bloomfield Art Association provides that unusual opportunity Friday, March 10, at 8 p.m. in a program billed as "Ask the Critic." Members, guests and the public are invited to bring an original work of art—either self-executed or collected—to be discussed by a distinguished panel of artists to the BAA, 1516 S. Cranbrook Rd.

Stuart Hodges, director of the Flint Institute of Arts, and Michael Hall, head of the sculpture department at Cranbrook Academy of Art, are the critics of the program which, last year, proved to be lively, controversial and, above all, interesting.

Artists, collectors and the general public are urged to bring an original work in any medium to challenge the imagination of the panel.

"Ask the Critic," which will be preceded by a reception for the panelists, is open to the public.
