5 Kitchen Queen Finalists In Area

Half of the finalists in the 10th annual Detroit Edison Co. Queen of the Kitchen contest are working women from the Observer area.

Mrs. Ruth Kluth, 34102 Coventry Dr., Livonia, who won second place in last year's competition in cooking quick and original oven dishes, will be back this year with an entree she calls Tropical Sausage Stacks.

Mrs. Kluth, an employee of Brooks and Perkins, Inc., and the nine other finalists will take part in a cook-off Wednesday, March 24, in Edison's electric kitchens in Detroit. The winner will receive a new electric range.

ANOTHER LIVONIAN who is no stranger to the final cook-off is Mrs. Ida Grenier, 33038 Hees. An employee of Detroit

Chemical Industries, Inc., she was a finalist in 1965 and 1966. Her recipe this year is for a Pork Chop Loaf.

Local women competing in the finals for the first time are:

Patricia Bishop, 33123 N. Manor, Farmington, employed by the Michigan Credit Union League and entering Creamed Chicken Casserole.

Linda Hiltz, 1281 Palmer, Plymouth, employed at Highland Park High School and entering Lazy Lasagna Casserole.

Madeleine Jakad, 39500 W. Warren, Plymouth, employed by the Detroit Coca-Cola Bottling Co. and entering Working Wives Seafood Casserole.

THERE WERE more than 300 entries in the contest that was open to all women employed full-time outside their homes and living in southeastern Michigan. The recipes had to be one-dish meals that could be prepared in an hour.

Winners will be announced at a luncheon following the cook-off. In addition to the top-range, nine other appliances will be awarded. Queens in nine previous contests have been invited to attend the luncheon.

GIANT FLOWERS will highlight the decoration for a fashion show scheduled by the auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus Father Renaud Council in the gymnasium of Our Lady of Good Counsel school in Plymouth. Styles featured in the shows at 1 and 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 24, will be from Stretch 'n Sew, which has a store in Livonia, and Sherry Thomet, proprietor of the store, will be commentator. Refreshments and prizes also will be offered, and $1.50 tickets will be available at the door. Looking over the decorations are Dr. Theresa Klucka left, who made her pant suit in a Stretch 'n Sew class; Mrs. Mary Gillis, decorations chairman; and Mrs. Mary Toth, poster chairman. Conversation Set By CEW

"Roles and Realities" is the topic of a Conversation at the University of Michigan's Center for Continuing Education of Women Thursday, March 18.

The Conversation will take place in the center, 330 Thompson St., Ann Arbor, from 9 to 11 a.m.

Such questions as possible changes in the traditional roles and expectations for women, real or imagined discrimination, part-time jobs and child-care possibilities will be discussed by a panel of women whose lives are affected by these issues. A discussion will follow.

The series will close with a discussion about "The Job Hunt" April 13.

All interested women and men are welcome.

Wives Meet

The Ford Wives Club will meet Tuesday, March 23, at 7:45 p.m., in the Ford Central Office Building, Dearborn.

The program will feature "The Friars" of the University of Michigan Glee Club. Members are asked to bring guests.

Club Luncheon

The Lake Pointe Garden Club of Plymouth will hold its annual spring salad luncheon Saturday, March 20, at 12 noon in Junior High East School, Mill Street, Plymouth. A fashion show will be featured.

Sale Planned

Livonia VFV Post No. 3941 will hold a rummage and bake sale Saturday, April 3, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at 27555 Grantland, Livonia.

Pilot-Artist Is AAUW Speaker

A prominent Michigan artist, Lorraine Chambers McCarthy, will be the featured speaker at the Plymouth branch of the American Assn. of University Women's meeting Thursday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. in Plymouth Junior High West.

Mrs. McCarthy, who has paintings on show at the Butler Institute of American Art in Youngstown, Ohio, the Savannah Art Museum of Georgia, and the Rental Gallery of the Detroit Institute of Art, will use slides and actual paintings to show the development of her work and the influences upon it.

Membership in the Plymouth AAUW is open to all area women who are graduates of an accredited college or university. Interested women are welcome to attend Thursday's meeting and may contact Mrs. Hugh Jarvis, 453-8582, for further information.

Winners for first prizes in the 1969 Scarab Club competition, the Pallet & Brush competition of 1969, the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors, and the 1969 Michigan Artists Show, Mrs. McCarthy gives private art lessons in her Royal Oak home.

Later this year, she will have one-woman shows in Lansing and in the Scarab Club in Detroit.
