

Glenn gains national prominence

WINNING BOWLING tournaments is nothing new for Tamika Glenn. This 15-year-old Farmington Hills resident has already won her share of YABA matches.

But when someone is honored nationally, it's certainly worth a mention. Last month, at the YABA National Championships, Glenn was selected for the All American Girl award, which carries a $500 scholarship.

Glenn's scoring at the nationals earned her eighth place in the girls' scratch division, which included a field of 130 competitors. She also rolled an actual high game of 245.

Glenn had earlier earned her chance to compete in the national tourney by winning the YABA state title.

Now for the rest of the story: During the same weekend that Glenn won the state championship, she also bowled in the MAMA (Michigan Juniors Masters Association) and shot her first 300 game.

Glenn is one of just three Michigan Youth Bowlers to roll a perfect game in competition. This unusually gifted young girl will have a tremendous honor to accomplish more than most people do in a lifetime.

The All American Girl award fits Glenn well. It's a tremendous honor to have been chosen by a vote taken among the national YABA competitors.

lel), one of these years there will be a new star on the scene, Tamika Glenn.

There are many leagues around town looking for a few more bowlers to fill the roster. I'm sure that you bowlers are looking for the right league to join.

To bowling there's something for everybody when it comes to organized competition.

Even for novice bowlers, who would like to get started for the first time, many houses have the right leagues for both adult and youth bowlers.

Anyone who is just starting out will get plenty of help from the league, as well as other experienced bowlers.

For couples who are looking for a fun night out, there are plenty of mixed leagues around town. Some of the Saturday and Sunday mixed leagues meet every other week. I'll refer to these later in the column as 5/20. This allows for a smaller commitment by the bowler and costs less money.

If some people are not sure whether they would like league play, they can be a substitute and find out what it's all about. Bowling is a lot of fun at all levels of competition, and dollar for dollar, it's the best bargain in sports.

Caesars' playoff run ends in Johnstown

Point Stadium, on the banks of the Allegheny River, turned out to be the final resting spot Thursday for Livonia Collegiate Baseball League representative Little Caesars.

The LCBL playoff champions were eliminated by Johnny's Auto Sales of Baltimore, Md. in the fourth round of the All-American Amateur Baseball Association (ages 10 and under) tournament at Johnstown, Pa., 7-3.

Despite out-hitting the defending AABA champs, 13-8, Caesars headed home from the double-elimination tourney after leaving a total of 12 runners on base, including 10 in the first four innings.

Johnny's broke open a close game in the ninth inning, scoring three runs to put Caesars away. Tom Taylor keyed the surge with a two-run homer.

Teammate William Phillips also homered off Caesars starting pitcher Eric Stanczak, who went the entire nine innings.

Stanczak walked four and struck out three. Johnny's starter Mark Foster also threw a complete game. He struck out five and walked four.

first-inning advantage when Wayne Memorial High product Mike Heard, an outfielder from the University of Detroit Mercy, drove in Don Sikora with a single.

But the Livonians muffed a chance to have a big inning, leaving the bases loaded.

Baltimore got two back in the third, but Caesars regained the lead when Earl Johnson, who went 3-for-5, and Jeff Bates, each scored runs.

Johnny's tied it in the fifth and took the lead for good with another run in the sixth.

Jeff Miller also added three hits for Caesars, while Heard and Brent Hayward added two each.
