Bowlers recognize Hills sponsor

THE EVENT WAS the 53th Annual John P. Gavie Invitational Tournament.

It could have been aptly called the "Who's Who in Local Bowling Circles." Monday night, Aug. 19, at Thunderbolt, one of the highlights of the opening ceremonies was a presentation to Lew Anasara of Farmington Hills.

In fact, the tournament was held in honor of Anasara's recognition as one of the top bowlers for more than 30 years of sponsorship of the all-stars. This tournament is recognized as the official kick-off of the bowling season.

It is the starting signal for the H & L Distributors Tuesday All-Star at Thunderbolt and the Scheater Beer Thursday All-Star Traveling Classic.

Anasara is the honorary president of both leagues. His own team, Anasara's Big Boys, always regarded as one of the top teams in the city, set some new scoring records along the way last year.

Nobody has ever been more deserving of being honored than Anasara. His name has been prominently displayed on more bowling shirts than anyone around as he has sponsored many teams, a few leagues and numerous tournaments. Lew has been one of local bowling's biggest supporters and boosters.

Lew is a fine bowler in his own right, having competed in some of the top leagues in the area. The Anasara family has the Big Boy restaurants in Livonia, Garden City, Westland and Redford. Not very many businessmen know the real value of sponsorship in bowling. The Anasara family do, and the money they spend for bowlers is well appreciated among the bowling community.

As for the bowling tournament, there were too many high games and great names in bowling to list them here, however, the media team comprised of certain bowling writers easily dispatched the "Sponsor" team from the Scheater Beer Co.

By the way Lew, I'd like a "Drawn Lay" sandwich and fries.
What's in a name? There is a new high performance ball coming out this fall from AMF. It will be called the "Sumo." I haven't seen it yet, but I don't think it will be any larger than most other bowling balls.

Earlier this month, the Greater Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame committee met to vote for the individuals deemed worthy of selection. Aside from the bowling accomplishments, the criteria for selection includes congeniality, dress code, promotion of the game, conduct on and off the lanes and good fellowship.

The final selections by category: Men — Bob Chamberlain; Veteran's — Bob Golke and Jack Born; Women — Yvonne Barnes; Meritorious Service — Robert Wissmiller.

The hall of fame dinner will be held on Nov. 3 at the Ukrainian Cultural Center in Warren.

Now for the rest of the story: There was the incident reported here two weeks ago in which an 85-year-old Detroit was robbed of his bowling ball, bag and new shoes.

Mary Mohr, owner of "Right Approach" pro shop at Merril-Bowl Lanes in Livonia, read about the incident and contacted the gentleman to let him know she would replace his gear with all new equipment free of charge. I am happy to report that this man came in to the shop and has his bowling outfit, all new.

Nice going, Mary.
Happy retirement wishes to a long-time bowling buddy, Irv "Flying Tiger" Kemper, who is packing up to move to Tucson, Ariz., with his lovely wife Mary. Irv has been a Masonic League bowler locally for the past 30 years and will be missed. He was on championship teams with me in 1965 and again in '89.

In case you missed it, the ABC has a brand new type of award this year: a wrist watch to commemorate a game bowled of 100 pins over average. This is a very attractive award, and an attainable goal for many bowlers.

Look for the Observer & Eccentric personal bowling recordcard at all area bowling centers. These are handy to keep a record of your league scores, or if you're not in a league, you can still have a log of your open bowling scores and use it to compute your bowling average. They are free of charge.

Personally I have kept such records for 32 years of league bowling. I know exactly how many 200 games, 600 series, and in which houses, I have bowled.

Anyone who walks into the West Bloomfield Lanes on Orchard Lake Road will be pleasantly surprised at the updated surroundings. Owner Larry Sisson went all out with his pocket book this summer to make things the best that they can be for all his bowlers.

Aug. 18 was the date of the latest State's Beer-Michigan Majors Tournament, held at Cherry Hill North in Clarkston.

Jon Patti, of Redford, came in fourth; Amos Mathis, Southfield, 10th; Larry Walker, Garden City, 11th; Nuncio Marano, Livonia, 15th; Tim DeBerger, Canton, 19th; Ed Grant, Rochester Hills, 21st; Larry Franz, Redford, 23rd; Jon Reed, Redford, 26th; Tony Sipeck, Redford, 29th; Keith Kwiatkowski, Birmingham, 34th.

The first match of the stepladder finals will be shown on PASS Cable TV Sept. 7th. The next tournament is slated for Sept. 21-22 at Monitor Lanes in Bay City. For further information, call Ken Charette at 775-2414.

● SOCCER CHAMPS

Ben Sommers of Farmington Hills was part of a three-man team that won the under-14 championship of the National 3-on-3 Soccer Tournament Aug. 3 at Schoolcraft College. Sommers, David Stankovich of Mount Clemens and Jeremy Scheffer of Belleville won the championship 7-6 over players from the '77 Michigan Wolves. Stopping a penalty shot in the last minute, Sommers, Stankovich and Scheffer are teammates on the Spirit of '77. They won their quarterfinal game 12-5 and the semifinal 9-5.

All games were played on a mini-field with three-foot by six-foot goals, no goalkeeper, no referee and no substitutions. Teams competed for titles in under-12 through under-19 divisions.
