Dr. Robert E. McQuaid

THE FREEDOM THAT C
ENSURE MUST BE PRO

We are fortunate that, due to the wisdom of our founding fathers, we live under the protection of laws that safeguard our rights where each level of government has its powers and limitations defined. However, we must not forget that freedom is a fragile gift, well as from without, by misguided beliefs would its very provisions to destroy. Throughout our history we too frequently had to defend liberty and democracy of the world, and there so process. Let us attend to pray that all people may system of God-given freedom always blessed our land.

It is my duty to my country, to support its Constitution, and to defend its liberties against all enemies foreign and domestic.
William Tyler Page.
