LET'S TALK

'Guns of Paradise' series went to TV's great beyond

By Taylor Michaels

Q: Whatever happened to the show Paradise? It was a good show for children to grow up with. It seems like all that's on now are shows with men and women naked. That's not nice for little children to see. They need shows like Paradise — not trash. —Cleo Pullins, Keokuk, Iowa.

A: The show went through title (Guns of Paradise) and time slot changes and eventually was canceled. There are quite a few programs on the air that are suitable for the entire family, Full House, Perfect Strangers, Empty Nest and The Cosby Show. For teenagers, try Beverly Hills, 90210, Northern Exposure, Law & Order, A Different World and Matlock. There are also many good shows in syndication. Check your local listings for them. Of course, you always have the option of turning off the tube in favor of a good book.

Q: Could you tell me the name of the actor who played an alien named Martin in the movie V? My sister says he is on Counterstrike, but I don't think she's right. Has he been in any other movies? —V.S., Phoenix.

A: The man's name is Frank Ashmore. I have no other information on him. Sorry.

Q: I like Lou Diamond Phillips, Christian Slater and Carey Feldman. I was hoping you would give me their addresses so I could write to them. —Jessica Coplen, Kellyville, Okla.

A: Phillips can be reached c/o Harris and Goldberg, 1999 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 2850, Los Angeles, Calif., 90067. Write Slater c/o CAA, 9830

Lee Horsley in Guns of Paradise

Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212. Feldman can be reached c/o APA, 9000 Sunset Boulevard, Suite 1200, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.
