'Finian's Rainbow'

FARMINGTON Sounds of music provide the halls of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic High School in Farmington as the music and drama departments go into final rehearsals for "Finian's Rainbow."

This musical fantasy will be presented on Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27, at 8:15 p.m. and on Sunday, March 28, at 7:30 p.m.

Many young people from the Farmington area are among the cast and crew of more than 100. Not all are Mercy students; there are several male performers from other high schools and from the community.

The public is invited. Advance tickets are $2 but more may be obtained before each performance for $2.50. Our Lady of Mercy is located at 28300 W. 11 Mile at Middle Belt.

Dave Ackroyd of 28420 Brandynville plays the role of Buzz Collins, Ann Ermatinger, 25065 Manchester, is Henrietta, and Mary Zimmerman, 26269 Middle Belt, is Sonny.

Character roles were won by Ann Sullivan, 25971 Lyncaste; Katie Coleman, 37710 Windy Lee; Janet Hallett, 25329 Harcourt; and Andrea Baldassarre, 25388 Crown Point Court.

Among those in the dancing chorus are Ann Neville, 28185 Davers Drive; Ron Ruffing, 26377 Kirtland; David Rotary, 28811 Kendallwood; Mark Rutledge, 31972 Lamar; Steve Scovell, 32291 Dunford; and Danny King, 24007 Merrilyn Court.

Through the leadership of experienced choreographers and a professional orchestra directed by Don Palmer, the show hopes to bring Broadway a bit closer to Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. DeNies of Mayfield Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. McHugh of Independence Green recently returned home from a delightful two weeks vacation in Scottsdale, Ariz., enjoying their favorite sport of golfing.

The only complaint they had was to return home to inclement weather. Mr. DeNies caught a bad cold from the weather change but has it about licked at this writing.

MRS. G.M. FENN of Oakland returned home from a visit with her son, Orrin Fenn, and wife Therese of Mt. Clemens.

Her return to Farmington coincided with her 91st birthday on March 11 when a group of Mrs. Fenn's close friends arrived with birthday cake and gifts plus flowers to help her celebrate the occasion.

Present were Mrs. Stella Bennett of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Tamm of Southfield, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Adams of Lexington, and close friend and neighbor Mrs. Frances Halstead of Farmington Rd.

William Oliver of River Glen Apartments returned to his position at the Detroit Bank & Trust in the downtown office after his recent illness of several weeks.

Jack Sasseen of Oakland Ave., Farmington, flew to New Jersey on a business trip and then to Pittsburgh to attend another meeting for the Aerogrip Corp.

Last Saturday evening, the Jack Sasseens enjoyed cocktails and dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Pullis of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fullerton of Jackson who were guests of the Pullis's.

A class reunion is being planned for the graduates of 1955 of Farmington Senior High. Anyone with information about the many who have moved away are encouraged to contact Mrs. Dennis (Wanda Menke) Dearing at 29976 Leona, Garden City.

MR. AND MRS. Milton Schwartz of Kirkside Dr. have purchased a delightful retirement home on Black Lake near Cheyboygan. It will be used for summer vacations until those retirement days roll around.

As usual, Mrs. Mary Von Burg of Imperial is living it up in Florida while her family keeps the home fires burning. Mary is a member of the Senior Dropouts Center in Farmington which meets in the Masonic Temple at Grand River and Farmington Rds. every Monday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mrs. Charlotte Oman of Alice Kay St. recently returned home after having major surgery in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital. We wish Charlotte a speedy convalescence.

Mrs. Dan Johnson of Greening arrived home from Pontiac General Hospital recently after surgery. Reports are that she is recovering very nicely at home.

Skip and Carol Kay of Argonne Rd. and children Tim, Tracy, Lynn and Stephanie spent two weeks in Florida visiting Skip's aunt and uncle, former Farmingtonites the Jim Hills who live there permanently.

Lisa Neda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neda of 32334 Heathstone, Farmington Township, has achieved a typing speed of 105 wpm. She can type 100 to 105 wpm in the one-minute tests and at least 90 wpm on five-minute tests.

Lisa is a ninth grader at O.E. Dunkel Junior High School. She does not own a typewriter and the only practice she gets is in Mrs. E. Lamos' typing class at the school. Lisa will come into the typing room at least two or three hours daily and practice.

Her typing includes school assignments and special work for the teachers at the school. All in all, Lisa has had about eight months of typing instruction. Before her family moved to Farmington, Lisa had a personal typing class for one-half semester at Abbott Jr. High in West Bloomfield. This fall she enrolled in the full year of typing and typed about 35 to 40 wpm on three minute tests.

MRS. ELEANOR Lamos, who is her present teacher, has only experienced one other such achievement by a young person in her eight and half years of teaching typing. Lisa plans to pursue a career in business and typing and at present is an honor roll student. She is one of five children in the Neda household which include: Carol, who lives in Paris, Marty is a student at Eastern; Tara is at University of Michigan and Tammy is in the eighth grade at O.E. Dunkel.

Mrs. John Manecke of Quail Hollow donated a portable typewriter to Lisa when she heard of the news.
