ENTERTAINMENT EDITORS
AT HARBOR SPRINGS
Following the acceptance by the Michigan Press Association of the invitation extended by Harbor Springs last month at the annual meeting of the association in East Lansing, to be host to the association at the time of their Summer Outing in June, the fore- of Harbor Springs are organizing to make the event the most successful ever undertaken. E. J. Hanna, publisher of The Emmet County Graphic, at Harbor Springs extended the invitation and was made chairman of the Summer Outing committee. He was also made chairman of the Harbor Springs entertainment committee and states that a program is being arranged that will make the publishers of the state have the most delightful three days they ever enjoyed.
Everything is to be free to the publishers and their wives. The Wequetonsing Hotel, under the management of L. G. Davis, has offered this ideal resort hotel as headquarters. This is where the guests will room. Ramona Park Hotel, through the owner, Frits Cremer, has offered a dinner dance, including the orchestra. Forest Beach Inn, Sager and Reeves, proprietors will provide one banquet and Mr. Simpson, owner of the Emmet Hotel, another. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches have each offered to provide a meal. Canada Bros. Cigar Store will kick in with cigars and ice cream. Other attractions will be furnished. The Chamber of Commerce will pay the incidental expenses.
Three golf links, an indoor golf course, tennis courts, boats, bathing facilities, autos, etc., will be available. Those who make the trip here for the first time will be astounded at the thousands of beautiful summer homes, the wonderful Little Traverse Bay, the sunsets, the pure artesian water, the virgin trees and sandy beaches, in this—the center of the Playground of a Nation.

FRESHENING BREEZES
F. D. K.

Many a woman who marries a man to mend his ways would get away to a much better start if first she'd learn to mend his clothes.

The mystery is, that the telephone company could make such progress with so many fools in autos smashing down their poles.

Many a man who observes all the laws still remains a community nuisance.

Stiefel fail to discourage the thrifty Scot. He can lower or shorten the kilt as society demands.

The educated man is the gentleman who refrains from saying, "I told you so."
The week's best fiction story: "Take your time in which to pay."

What has become of the old-fashioned girl who thought he was all dressed up when he put on a "biled" shirt?

Life's most disgusting spectacle is the town reformer whose private life contains the things he most condemns in others.

Out west the other day a river suddenly disappeared into a hole in the ground. Something like the money the boys from Michigan put into that Colorado copper mining stock a few years ago.

The huge profile in stone recently discovered in Oregon has been named "Goolidge Rock." Probably because it's about as loquacious.

Prohibition will probably stand a better show of enforcement when the time comes that the boys will be willing to see their private bootleggers begin serving jail sentences.

The old-fashioned housewife who used to put up a few crocks of applebutter every fall now has a darling daughter who starts in feeding friend husband a line of "applesauce" every time he reaches the old homestead after a hard day's work.

The community that longs for progress must first learn to trust and patronize the home town merchants.

The trouble with most of us is, we're afraid to say no, even to a doorbell ringer.

BODIES BY FISHER

In developing and introducing the new Pontiac Six General Motors has completely shattered the theory that high quality could not be achieved in a low-cost Six.
From the day of its public presentation, the Pontiac Six has been making giant strides toward leadership in its field—because it is the living expression of quality in every aspect of motor car value.
With the Pontiac Six priced at $825, it is no longer necessary to accept the limitations of high-priced fours nor those that have hitherto characterized low-priced sixes.
In breath-taking performance, in striking beauty, in luxurious comfort, in staunch construction, the Pontiac Six is the vital embodiment of quality—yet it sells for a price so low that only General Motors could possibly achieve it.
