

NOTICE OF SALE OF STRAY HORSES

Notice is hereby given that I will sell at public sale at the Livonia Town Hall, corner of Five Mile and Farmington roads on Saturday, May 1, 1926, at 2:30 p. m., provided that the property is not previously claimed and all charges paid. Horses found stray on a public highway and now being cared for at the George Stuckey farm:

One bay gelding, weight about 800 pounds, with one white hind foot.

One black mare with white nose and white stripe on face, weight about 1200.

CHARLES ASH,
Highway Commissioner of Livonia Township, Michigan.

Powerful Radio Station

The powerful Swedish commercial wireless station at Grimeton appears to have a greater range than was first calculated. It is reported from Japan that radio messages sent out by the Swedish station have been received there, and it is now proposed that the station be so improved as to establish direct traffic with Japan.
