IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear son, husband, father

MUSCLES SHOALS WONDERS

Mary T. Doherty, manager for the Pan-American Soil Co., has just returned from a trip to Muscles Shoals, Ala., says "I cannot begin to tell you the immensity of the natural resources of that locality and its wonderful possibilities for a city of a million people in less than five years."

The new Wilson dam with its 450,000 horse power will supply light and heat at one-fourth the cost of such accommodations in this part of the country. And the government nitrate factories, 52 in number, will soon swing into operation, employing thousands as it did during the war. The climate is moderate at all times and a visit to this wonderful center of your own great U. S. is truly worth while."

Donna, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Kahl, who is in the hospital, is gradually improving.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the faculty and pupils of the Farmington schools and the neighbors for the beautiful floral tributes at the death of our husband and father.

Mrs. Ada Leonard.

and brother, George G. Cox, who passed away three years ago, April 29, 1923.

Never shall his memory fade. Sleep on dear son and husband dear thy pain is o'er.

Thy willing hands shall toil no more;

But on that bright and peaceful shore, where pain and sorrow are no more,

We would not wish him here. We know God loved him best

And took him from this world of toil, to the land of eternal rest.

A loving son and husband true and kind,

No friend like him on earth we'll find,

For all of us he did his best, And God gave him eternal rest.

His loving father, mother, wife, sons, sister and brothers.
