St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Clarenceville (At Switzer Road)
Rev. Paul Graupner, Pastor
9:30—Sunday School.
10:30—English service.
The Lutheran Church glories in the fact that, by the grace of God, it is the Bible church. The Bible, nothing but the Bible, and everything in the Bible, is its slogan. The Lutheran Church does not interpret the Bible, but lets the Bible interpret itself. In Lutheran theology there is no place for the decrees of popes and councils, nor for the many differing opinions of other men. The Lutheran Church has never thought of changing its doctrinal confessions, for its doctrines are not its own, but are the teachings of Christ and the Apostles.
Because the Lutheran Church is the Bible church, it has a message which you cannot ignore. It is not foisting upon you Luther, nor the opinion of any other man, but it is preaching into you the Word of the Eternal God, showing you the only way that leads into salvation, the way of which Jesus says, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me."
Perhaps you often intended to come. Make up your mind and come next Sunday.
Universalist Church
Services first and third Sunday of each month, conducted by Rev. Frank D. Adams of Detroit.

Driver, Driver!
Spare that Tire!

Never throw away a "blown" tire—there may be thousands of miles in it. We have a new method of repairing tires, however badly damaged they may be, that restores them to their original strength. And so well do we vulcanize the tread and sidewall, closing the cut completely, that no one could ever tell you had had a tire injury.
