Among the high spots of Farmington—the city built on a hill—a purely high class residential development, offered in response to the demand for strictly, high grade suburban property. All modern improvements. It's rolling landscape, hills dotted with trees, winding drives, through secluded wood lands, make it a most interesting, desirable home place. These qualities of FARMINGTON WOODS are permanent in nature. No transcient element will enter this community and it behoves every present Farmington resident to buy their future home lot now while they may yet choose from the best locations, at the very least prices. Now is the Appointed Time. Select Yours. Easy Terms
