Teachers, doctors, parents, service clubs and many others help us to help those who cannot be cured to have hope. All are welcome at the Easter Seal Center.

A discussion on the use of the Schoolcraft College physical education facilities with ebuilding early get near the arm up at the trustee meeting Wednesday with a student asking for more time for student use and a trustee asking for more community use.

The discussion resulted after a report submitted to the board stated that keeping the facilities open on Fridays from 7 to 10 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. would cost the district $18,448. ER, of 31242 Bycroft Rd., Farmington, has been named assistant sales manager for Republic Steel Corp.'s cold finished

But a student representa tive, Mark McQuesten, said the building is not available to the student body enough.

The board moved to have a more detailed report drawn up on the operating costs of the facilities including a fee schedule that could alleviate the costs.
