Who Was Swedenborg?

Emanuel Swedenborg, the son of a bishop, was the great Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, whose vast range caused Emerson to term him the madman of Sweden. Dr. Parker Colman recently named him the Universal Creator. Officially connected, by appointment of the King, with the great mining industry of Sweden, he mastered all the sciences of his time, and wrote the most useful books on metallurgy, minerals, geology, astronomy, and the human brain. His life search was for the human soul. How his spiritual senses were opened, after he was 50 years of age, that he might reveal the human soul, the life after death, and the Bible itself, may be read in the above named, uplifting, useful book.

CLEANUP SQUAD
SETS A RECORD

CAPT. I. H. MARMION

The cleanup squad of the Michigan State Police has been concentrating its efforts principally in the vicinity of Detroit and a very large quantity of smuggled liquor has been seized while a number of breweries have been found and closed. This squad is under command of Captain Ira H. Marmion, who introduced the fingerprint bureau at Lansing and is recognized as one of the outstanding authorities on criminal identification work in the country.

Lieut. Alonzo Gillette is his assistant. The squad visits roadhouses and has closed a number of disorderly places as well as cutting down the amount of public gambling in the suburbs of Detroit.

It is claimed that the Michigan State Police cleanup squad has made more seizures of liquor, in proportion to the number of men engaged, than any other similar body of police officers in the United States.

TOURISTS GIVEN
SERVICE ON ROADPATROL OF PRINCIPAL HIGHWAYS
WAYS AID TO THE STATE.

Michigan's tourist routes will be better patrolled by State Police in 1926 than ever before. Commissioner Alan C. Straight of the Department of Public Safety has assigned every available man to patrol duty and while the force is far below the strength required to cover all the main highways, every effort will be made to safeguard the public and to make travelling safe.

Courtesy is the watchword of the troopers and the aim is not to make the greatest number of arrests but to warn minor violators and to exercise severity only in the case of drunken and criminally reckless drivers. Assistance will be given, as in the past, to motorists who have accidents.

Tourists appreciate the advantage of travelling over patrolled highways and many letters of commendation have been received praising the work of the troopers.

While engaged in patrol duty, the State Police will also give service in general law enforcement. They are under orders to investigate all matters of law-breaking coming to their attention while on patrol, as well as those reported to the stations.

Particularly the troopers will seek to check the depredations committed by a certain class who go into the rural sections and carry away fruit, vegetables and other things which they may find unguarded. Every such complaint will be followed up.

Indications are that 1926 will be the banner year for tourist travel in Michigan.

Not only are the State Police posts furnished with maps and other touring information but the individual troopers are given the latest information of this kind so that they may assist travellers. Every police post is a touring bureau, with co-operation of the automobile clubs.

STATE POLICE NOTE

Corp. Guy Baugh has been placed in command of the new State Police post near Grand Haven.

The New York Highway Patrol, formerly under the highway department, has been transferred to the New York State Police. Experience showed that the work could be done under unified command.

A state-wide automobile safety campaign was carried out under the direction of the Michigan State Police during the week of June 28. This was the culmination of weeks of preparation and had as its aim the elimination, so far as possible, of faulty brakes and lights. A very large percentage of accidents are due to defective parts of the motor car.

Governor Alfred Smith of New York, a presidential possibility in the Democratic ticket in 1924 and one of the leaders of that party, was given the courtesy of a State Police escort when he crossed Michigan by motor car in June. He is a warm advocate of the troopers in his own state and one of his daughters recently married the commander of the New York force.
