As Time Goes On —

You see more strange faces appearing in our city. Some of these you never see again. Others remain and after awhile are looked upon as permanent citizens. This is the way our city and countryside is filling up.

You either inquire or hear about some real estate transaction. Prices are always a little higher. What makes this? Demand.

Are you going to increase your estate by judiciously investing in some REAL property that can't burn up, blow away, disappear or depreciate in the many ways that other property does? Some of this increase can be yours if you will act now.

We are in the real estate business to serve you. Opportunity is right here in Farmington.

Queen Well Knew Way to Hearts of Italians

"Margherita, the late dowager queen of Italy, and Eleonora Duse were two of the greatest women Europe has produced since the Renaissance," said some one who has studied Italian life for half a century. Each was supreme in her way and each practiced that greatest of all arts—simplicity.

An incident which had occurred years ago when Margherita was the young and beloved queen of Italy, still is related. She was riding through the gardens of the Borgese one afternoon in her splendid carriage with eight outriders in scarlet and gold, when she saw a ragged and crippled child standing at the side of the road. Instantly she stopped the carriage, and breaking the string of her magnificent pearls, gave one of them to him and drove on.

Now that's the kind of gesture which the people love. No one who saw that incident would ever stop to think that she might have done an equal amount of good in a less picturesque way. All people—especially Latins—respond to that kind of thing.—Maude Parker Child, in the Saturday Evening Post.

Chinese Kitchen God Deity of Importance

The Chinese have a festival of some kind almost every month. One of the most important, says China, is that of the kitchen god, which takes place on the twenty-third day of the twelfth month of the year. Then all the family congregate in the kitchen to do honor to the kitchen god, whose image is pasted on the chimney, for that night he is supposed to go to heaven to report on the conduct of the members of the household during the last year.

To show that he must report only their sweetness, the head of the family smears the lips of the image with molasses! After this they burn the image with great ceremony, and it is believed that the god ascends with the smoke.

A week later the family again assemble to welcome his return. Amid great rejoicing and the popping of many firecrackers they put up a new image.
