Spring Musical Set By Livonia Chorus

DETROIT
Strained city finances and cutbacks on security and maintenance personnel have led the Detroit Institute of Arts to reduce the number of galleries which will be open free during its six-day operation each week.

An estimated one-third of the galleries will be closed to the public on any one day. This revolving plan is now in effect. The schedule will be available at the Woodward and Farnsworth entrances. It may also be obtained by calling the institute.

Special exhibitions will not be affected.

The Livonia Civic Chorus will present its annual spring musical Friday, April 30, and Saturday, May 1, at 8 p.m., in Churchill High School Auditorium, 8900 Newburgh Rd., Livonia.

The adult mixed chorus, directed by Robert Siusarski and accompanied by Rosemary Alfano, is sponsored by the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department.

The chorus has titled its program "Songs for All Seasons." It will have 36 solo and group numbers, including "Sound of Music," "Bridge

Over Troubled Waters," "Everything Is Beautiful" and "Summertime."

Tickets are being sold at the Parks and Recreation Office, both Livonia Public Libraries and by chorus members. They are $2 for adults and 75 cents for senior citizens' groups and for students.

Now in its sixth year, the LCC keeps a membership of 50 to 60 music lovers.

Proceeds from the concert will help the chorus give two paid scholarships to Interlochen to Livonia high school students, as it has done in previous years.

QUARTET COMING—The Four Lads will be starred in Lofy's Pavilion Room Thursday, April 8, through April 17. The Lads are Frankie Busseni, Johnni D'Arc, Jerry Mason and Jimmie Arnold. Their Gold Records include "Standing on the Corner," "Moments To Remember," "Who Needs You" and "No, Not Much." Lofy's is located at 42390 Ann Arbor Rd., Plymouth.

Marygrove Has Art Exhibition

DETROIT
From acrylics through zinc plates, all art media used by the newly-formed consolidated art department at Marygrove College will be displayed at the first senior art exhibit opening at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18, on the fourth floor of the Liberal Arts building.

Students from cooperating schools, such as University of Detroit and Mercy College, work under the supervision of Sister Catherine Organ, IHM, department chairman.

The gallery will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m.

TEACHES ON TV—Dr. Robert H. Cowden, WSU assistant professor of music and a Livonia resident, will conduct a music credit course over WXYZ-TV's "TV College," beginning April 12. It will be broadcast weekday mornings from 7 to 7:30 until July 9. Students may register through April 15 by mail or in person. This is the first WSU music credit course to be broadcast.

Wayne Singles To Meet Sunday

DETROIT
Wayne Alumni Singles will have their monthly coffee hour Sunday, April 11, from 4 to 6 p.m., in the WSU Alumni House, 441 W. Ferry.

Single college graduates from WSU and other colleges are invited to attend. The Singles plan a variety of activities each month.
