'Land Of Dragon' Artist Will Comes To Livonia Do Critique

"Land of the Dragon," a fantasy by a contemporary writer, Madge Miller, will be presented by the Wayne State University Children's Theatre Saturday, April 10, at 1 and 3 p.m., in Franklin High School Auditorium, 31000 Joy Rd., Livonia.

The production is sponsored by the Livonia Children's Entertainment Guild and the Livonia Public Libraries.

Tickets at 50 cents each are on sale at both Livonia Public Libraries or from any guild member.

"The Land of the Dragon" concerns a Chinese princess who is in peril of losing her throne to a villainous pair of usurpers. She is finally saved by a wandering student and his flying dragon.

The cast is headed by Cris Becker of Northville as Jade Pure, the princess, and Richard Druchas of Redford Township, as Road Wanderer, the student hero. Carole Davis of Taylor and Fred Golden of Southfield play the two villains.

The performance runs a little over an hour.

An award-winning artist, Lorraine McCarty, will give a critique at the Livonia Artists Club Thursday, April 8, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be in the Carl Sandburg Library, 31000 Seven Mile Rd., Livonia.

Mrs. McCarty teaches in her own studio and is the executive designer at the International Women's Air and Space Museum in Oklahoma City, Okla.

She was 1969 woman artist of the year, and received top awards in the Mid-Michigan Show in Lansing, as well as from the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors, the Scarab Club, Palette and Brush and Butler Institute of American Art.

Amusements 2 Syrup Festivals Top Spring Events

Springtime is travel time in Michigan, a time when entire families late to the road to rediscover the exhilarating freshness of a new-born season.

It is also a time for "doing" and local communities offer a wide variety of activities and events during the month of April, according to the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events.

Maple syrup festivals are a sure sign of spring and Michigan has two, one in Shepherd, April 23-25, and another in Vermontville, April 24. A carnival atmosphere, complete with parades, prevails in both communities. Highlighting the festivities is the coronation of the Maple Syrup Queen.

AN OYSTER TRADITION signaling the coming of spring is the National Trout Festival in Kalkaska, April 23-May 5. Kalkaska's 56th annual salute to Michigan's official state fish has been named by the Discover America Travel Organizations as one of the nation's top 20 travel events for the month of April.

Fishing also will be king in Michigan's upper peninsula. The Ontonagon County Fishing Derby, which is open to the public, is being held through April 25 and prizes will be awarded to the fisherman who catches the largest fish within the county boundary.

THRILLS AND chills await spring vacationers in the Detroit area April 15-18. This is the time when cowboys invade the State Fairgrounds for the Longhorn Rodeo.

Lumberjack Shows Slides

Don Cooper, an Alaskan lumberjack, will show color movies of the "Inside Passage to Alaska," for the World Adventure Series, at 3 p.m., Sunday, April 11, in the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium, 3200 Woodward.
