

Community Services Mark Tre Ore Worship

Union services will be the order of Good Friday as Christians in Oberassel mark the hours Jesus suffered on the cross.

In nearly every community, churches are combining efforts for the services. In Farmington, the Area Clergy Fellowship is offering six services in scattered locations and with varying formats.

In the First United Methodist Church, Grand River at Warner across from the downtown shopping center, there will be a service from 10 to 11 a.m. with hours of silent meditation preceding and following it. The Wesleyan choir of the host church, consisting of junior and senior high girls, will furnish music.

FIVE LUTHERAN ministers will bring messages based on the seven last words from the cross in a three-hour service in Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, located near the 12 Mile Farmington Road Shopping Center.

The hours of worship will be divided into 10-minute segments, each including hymns, prayers, special choir music and a brief meditation. A five-minute interlude between the segments will allow worshippers to come and leave.

Participating will be the Rev. Victor Mesenbring of Prince of Peace, the Rev. Victor Halbohr Jr. of Grace Lutheran Church in Redford Township, the Rev. John Angle, director of the board of social ministries for the Michigan District, Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, the Rev. Carl Katreider of Antioch Lutheran Church, Farmington, and the Rev. Charles Fox of St. John Lutheran Church, Farmington.

NARDIN PARK United Methodist Church, 29887 11

Mile, Farmington, will host a service from 1 to 2:30 p.m., with brief meditations by each of the church's three ministers and special music.

A service using Antioch Communion and meditation will take place from 1 to 2:30 p.m. in Trinity Episcopal Church, 28880 LaMuera, Farmington.

That church also plans a 7:30 p.m. service, with a meditation on "Jesus Christ Superstar."

Two services are planned in Farmington area Catholic churches. In the Church of St. Clare, 29200 10 Mile, a color film depicting a Resurrection message and titled "Dawn of Victory" will be shown at 12 noon.

There also will be a Bible vigil from 12:30 to 1:15 p.m., and an liturgical service of Good Friday, including distribution of Holy Eucharist. The Tre-Ore service in St.

Gerald Catholic Church, 21300 Farmington Road, will be held at 12:30 p.m., with litany from 1:15 to 3 p.m. on the theme, "The Way of the Cross."

PLYMOUTH'S Community Church of Churches will conduct its union services in the First United Methodist Church, Church and Adams Streets, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. William Ury, newly-appointed pastor of St. Luke United Methodist Church, will preach the first sermon, and special music for the first period of worship will be provided by the youth choir of the host church.

In the second hour of worship, the preacher will be Dr. Henry Walsh, longtime pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth. The chancel choir of the First Baptist Church of Plymouth will sing the anthem.

Nursery care will be provided during the two hour services.

Annual union Good Friday services for four area churches will be held between 12:30 and 2:30 p.m. in Clearviewville United Methodist Church, 20300 Middle Belt, Livonia.

Congregations from the Evangelical Covenant Church, Rice Memorial United Methodist Church and Southfield Community Church will also attend.

THERE WILL be music and speakers from each church. Speakers will be the Rev. Edwin T. Clemens, the Rev. James Barnes, the Rev. Roy McCook and the Rev. Elsie Johns.

Robert Baumgartner, principal of Cass Technical High School in Detroit, will be speaker for identical Good Friday services April 9 in Redford Baptist Church, Redford Township, and Redford United Methodist Church in Detroit.

Members of the Village United Presbyterian Church in Redford Township also have been invited to join in the services.

Baumgartner's topic will be "At the Foot of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 3650 Six Mile."

The Bentley High School choir will furnish music for the service in the Baptist church, Grand River and Seven Mile, scheduled from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

Lutherans in Livonia will worship together in combined Good Friday services from 12 noon to 3 p.m. April 9 in the Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 3650 Six Mile.

"The Seven Last Words from the Cross" will be the theme of a Good Friday united service planned by four Livonia churches from noon until 3 p.m. April 9.
