

Troop 163 Holds Court Of Honor

FARMINGTON Farmington's Boy Scout Troop 163 recently held its spring court of honor with Bob Meyers, assistant scoutmaster, leading the tenderfoot investiture for Jack Monro and Brent Summers.

The second class rank was presented by Jim Haessly, troop treasurer, to Paul Duke and Tom Haessly. The Rev.

Eric Hammar, publicity chairman, presented the first class rank to David Dixon and Mark Davis.

BRETT STEVENS, Phil Stasinos and Larry Brown received the star scout award from Scott Brown, assistant scoutmaster.

Geoff McDavid earned the life scout award, the final rank before eagle scout, which was presented by Donn Achtenberg, troop committee chairman.

Merit badges were presented to the following by Hal McDavid: Larry Brown, art, citizenship in the home, wood carving; Brett Stevens, horsemanship; Geoff McDavid, citizenship in the home, community and nation, safety and horsemanship; Phil Stasinos, reading, pets, first aid; Tony Balardi, pets; Dave Hammar, art, home repairs; and Jim Achtenberg, American business.

TROOP OFFICERS installed at the court of honor were: Geoff McDavid, senior patrol leader; Jim Achtenberg, assistant senior patrol leader; Dave Smith, scribe, and Dave Hammar, librarian.

Also: Brett Stevens, Gordon Rowe and Tony Balardi, patrol leaders; Paul Duke and Greg Harris, assistant patrol leaders.

During March the troop green bar, consisting of all troop officers, held a training weekend at the Waterloo Recreation Area.

The troop meets in Wooddale Elementary School in Farmington every Monday night at 7:30 p.m. and is sponsored by Antioch Lutheran Church.

Dunckel Wins Science Awards

FARMINGTON Junior High students in Farmington School District won first and second place awards for ninth grade graphic arts at the Science Fair competition held recently at Cranbrook.

Winners were John M. Creighton and Ronald S. Regala. Lisa Moore received a special award for seventh grade graphic arts.

John's first place ribbon was for depicting "Petroleum Acquisition and Refinement." Ronald's second place award was for "Stars and Their Constellations."

The special award was for a display describing what occurs "When Hunger Strikes the Brain."

Pack 231 Readies For Pinewood Derby

FARMINGTON Whittling, sanding and shaping before applying the final paint job is keeping occupied the Cub Scouts and Webelos of Farmington Pack 231.

The preparation is for the Pinewood Derby April 23 at Larkshire Elementary School in Farmington.

Registration will only be taken from 6:30-7:15 p.m., just ahead of race time.

THE BOYS brought their car kits to the March Pack meeting after Webelos Den 1 presented the new race track they helped build to Cubmaster Jim Harkins, Sr. Three trophies will be given to Derby winners. The derby is a father-son project.

Next Pack committee meeting is April 19 at 8:30 p.m. in Chairman Bob Rounds' home.

Parents are urged to take a sustaining membership pledge to help support the new Boy Scout Troop 231 being started because the Scout Council will not be aided by United Fund as before. The Pack plans to take on a spring project proposed by the Farmington Beautification Committee.

THE PACK went bowling in March with 50 members enjoying the event in Farmington Lanes.

Final meeting of the school year will be May 21 when scouts and parents gather in the school gym to set up bake sale and handicraft booths for the PTA Fair on May 22.

At the March meeting, Bob Cislo showed slides of a race car, rules and derby scenes from last year, all as explanation for the upcoming derby.

Awards given at the March pack meeting were: Mark Heppard, bear badge with a gold and silver arrow; in Webelos — Robert Bruce, artist pin; Richard Clayton, scholar; Charles Cislo, aquanaut, craftsman, geologist, naturalist, scholar; John Crawford, craftsman, scholar, sportsman; Dana Rounds, artist, scientist, showman.

Attendance award was won by Den 1 for January, Dens 1, 2 and 3 tied for February.

Two new Webelos taken in were Rennie Whitehead and Mark Heppard.
