DESTINY OF MEN AND NATIONS
M. R. Alair of Detroit is announced to speak at Heliker's Hall Sunday at 8 p. m. Many are interested in the events daily chronicled in the press. It is claimed by the members of the International Bible Students Association that the Bible plainly marks out the destiny of both men and nations. These students of the Scriptures are declaring that a better day is at hand. They are endeavoring to reach the public by making their lectures free, and they assert that it is their desire to do good to all.—Adv.

DIVORCED HUSBY PUT ON TRIAL
Mrs. Eleanor Wurster, 30, of 211 Colby street, Farmington, agreed in Judge Vincent M. Brennan's court of renary her divorced husband, Fred, if he behaves himself during a month's probation.

Wurster was brought into court for non-payment of $502.50 alimony for the support of his wife and three children, Donald, 8; Harold, 5, and Robert, 3 years old. With her divorce in 1925, Mrs. Wurster was awarded $22.50 alimony. Wurster moved to Akron and sent her money. Mrs. Wurster became lonesome and asked her ex-husband to return, she said. He came back to Farmington, but the couple soon quarreled and during an argument Wurster hit her, she charged.

For this offense he was given 45 days in the Oakland county jail. The Detroit friend of the court's office heard of the case and had Wurster brought into court.

Judge Brennan tried to bring about a reconciliation between the two, and Mrs. Wurster finally agreed to give her ex-husband a month's trial before agreeing to a second marriage.—Detroit Times.

A little nonsense now and then will undo the best of men.

NOTICE
Owing to the fact that Christmas falls on Saturday the Library will not be open on that day, but will be open on Friday, December 31.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere gratitude to friends who sent floral offerings and extended their sympathy in our time of sorrow.
