NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK

(January 17 to 23)

Work and earn

Make a budget

Record Expenditures

Have a Bank Account

Carry Life Insurance

Own Your Home

Make a Will

Invest in Safe Securities.

Pay Bills Promptly

Share With Others

Perhaps of all things, Benjamin Franklin is most widely remembered for his doctrines of thrift.

So simple in practice, so certain in result, they have done much to advance American generations toward the state of financial independence.

These doctrines have been tersely expressed in the Ten Commandments of Thrift given above. Measure yourself against them. And adjust your financial program in accord with these admirable precepts so aptly programmed by the great American.

The week beginning with Franklin's birthday, January 17, has been set aside for a specific event.

Monday, January 17, is Thrift or Bank Day; Tuesday, January 18, is Budget or Home Economy Day; Wednesday, January 19, is Life Insurance Day; Thursday, January 21, is Safe Investment Day; Saturday, January 22, is Pay Bills Promptly Day; and Sunday, January 23, is Share With Others Day.

There is much in this week that is helpful to every individual who would make the most of American ideals and opportunities. This is an era of national prosperity, and there are heights to which we can climb if we but have the spirit that guided this great American in the first rudiments of financial independence.

Buick Ahead Again in the Yellowstone!

Again in 1926, more Buicks toured through Yellowstone Park than any other car except the one of lowest price.

Buick has held this same honor every year since the Park was opened to automobile travel.

This year there were 4,756 Buicks in a total of 44,472 cars registered. 101 different makes were represented in the registrations. One in every ten was a Buick.

Here is convincing evidence of Buick reliability—striking proof of the faith which Buick owners repose in their car.

They know Buick will take them and bring them back comfortably, safely and splendidly—across the Continent—or around the World.
