

At the Center

A class in "Comparative Religion" is being offered in the Farmington Community Center. Dr. Thelma James will conduct six lectures on Thursdays beginning April 22 at 10-12 a.m.

Christianity, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Islam and Judaism have helped shape the modern world in theology, morality, the arts and all of its social institutions. Dr. James' scholarly and inspiring approach to the subject of religion makes every session with her memorable.

She has spent a lifetime studying the Bible and transmitting her appreciation of it to other people. She was for many years a professor of English at Wayne University and recently has given classes at Marygrove. She has shared her vast store of knowledge in many short courses such as the one that is being given at the Center.

Her students come from all faiths and denominations. She was listed in "Who's Who Among American Women" in 1969. Six sessions for $15. Call the Center at 474-2990.

"MODERN PAINTING" from Impressionism to Surrealism will be held on Wednesdays beginning April 28 from 10 - 11:30 a.m. Six sessions for $15.

The outline of the course is as follows: the impressionists: Manet, Monet, Renoir, Degas, the post-impressionists: Van Gogh, Gauguin, Cezanne, Picasso and Cubism; Matisse and the Fauves; German expressionism; and surrealism (or a field trip to the museum).

Elizabeth Allen Defoulou who teaches the class has a B.A. from Smith College, MA from the University of Calif.

Secretaries Tuning Up

"Spring Tune-Up," an all day workshop scheduled by the Farmington Association of Educational Secretaries will be held in Farmington High School April 16.

Highlight of the day will be "Look Sharp," a demonstration of grooming techniques and accessories ideas by Mrs. Barbara McIntosh, a professional model from Saks Fifth Avenue.

Morning and afternoon, seminars will be held on Business English and Typing Shortcuts and Techniques with Mrs. Lucille Gingerich, teacher of English and Spanish at O. E. Dunckel Junior High School. Mrs. Gingerich is a representative of I.B.E.W.

General chairman for the workshop is Mrs. Myrtle Zimmerman. Registrations will be handled by Mrs. Beverly Baisley and Mrs. Betty Perry.

Mrs. Helene Avery, hospitality chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Nora Barsch, Mrs. Carol Benedetti, Mrs. Gloria Devlin, Mrs. Annette Edwards, Mrs. Kathy Fagan, Mrs. Nancy Lahr, and Mrs. Betty Perry.

Program covers are being supplied by Mrs. Ruth Fried and the printing done by Mrs. Agnes Johnson. Centepieces are the responsibility of Mrs. Chris Beyer, Mrs. Iris Mittlelo, and Mrs. Virginia Thompson.

Mrs. Jeanette Scott is in charge of publicity and prizes.

Kendallwood Kommments

By EMILY ORR, GR 4-7499

Happy and glorious Easter to all. Many residents have already reached their destination for the spring holiday. We wish you all a happy time and we'll report when they return. Many are just staying close to home to get a few projects accomplished so when old man weather decides it's really spring these folks will be all set and at their best.

APRIL is only 11 days old but many activities are taking shape and so here's a few reminders to jot down in your calendar.

On Tuesday, April 27, the Women of North Farmington will again sponsor a Benefit Card Party. Proceeds go to the "New Horizon." Heading the committee is Avis Dodi, chairman, and co-chairman Nellie Anderson. Assistants are: Dee Dougherty, door prizes; Carol Towne, refreshments; Joan Tokai, table prizes; Ann Carrier, tickets; Mary Berth, tables and chairs; Moni Erickson, hostesses; Ruth Falahee, table favors; Elsie Petosky, decorations; Pat Muzarelli, prizes; Mary Rairigh and Kay Werny, posters.

Then the dinner dance which is being sponsored by the Community Center to raise funds for the spring festival will be held at the Oaks. Call the Center for tickets.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heyn of Green Willow. They became grandparents on March 23. This is the first born for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zellner of Clawson. Granddaughter at tipped the scales at nine pounds and she is Whitney Lynn.

There was another first and it happened a few weeks ago at a coffee concert presented by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Before the concert those in attendance partook of a coffee hour and then followed a fashion show. The ladies were given a real surprise when fashions were presented by J. L. Hudson's and the entire program consisted of men's fashions.

Yes, there were a few men in the audience and Farmington was very well represented. A group of gals from Colony Park chartered their own bus, then another group came by bus from the Farmington Community Center. We were on holiday and drive downtown. My husband was delighted and exclaimed "those double knits will be ideal" plus he'd love a jump suit. We took a five-day ski trip to Boyne Country and had ideal spring skiing conditions.

Another highlight was a free movie on Thursday (Oh yes, every Thursday at 10 yes, a free movie to attend at the Civic). After the movie, lunch at the Oakland Towers at OCC. The dining room service and food is a laboratory experience for students enrolled in the Food Service Management Program. The food is superb. Dining hours are 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Building "J." Bon Appetit until April 15. Will reopen in the fall.

SPEAKING OF vacations, here's what Tom Armstrong and his friend Tom Kaufman both of North Farmington are doing at the present time. Both Toms have been friends since childhood. Then Tom Kaufman enlisted in the Army and the other Tom was drafted. They plan on skiing all the European areas and visit places and then come home to settle down.

wood creek farms

The Junior Wood Creek mothers gathered last week Tuesday at Pat deCook's. The new officers of this group are: Lee Ortman, president; Malca Wechsler, vice president; Carol Mesenbrink, secretary; Emma Stock, treasurer.

One thing the group has already done is decide on Family Fun Day. The McGraws have again offered their spacious property and the ponies are all lined up. Family Fun Day will be Saturday, June 5.

Annual blood bank day is almost here. The Community Bank at Franklin will again be in the Franklin Community Church on Friday, April 23, from 2:30 - 8:30 p.m. We all know what an important event this is, how much it is needed, how wonderful it is to have this supply ready in case of need. Many always contribute and many will do so this year. Betty Brown is in charge and is confident you will contribute.

Charlie and Betty Brown got back from Florida April 1. They drove down to Pompano the end of February. They had the usual wonderful time visiting with the many other Wood Creekers in that area. But Betty had to get back to take care of the blood bank.

Bill and Helen Weightman are also back. They left here March 14 driving down the west coast first and visiting the Mowbrays in Naples. Then they crossed to the east coast where so many Wood Creekers have been this year. They got back April 2.
