PROGRESSIVE BIBLE CLASS HAVE SUNDAY NOON DAY CLUB AS GUESTS

The Progressive Bible class with the Sunday Noon Day club as guests, numbering about forty in all, spent a social evening Monday of this week at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Crossman. They were delightfully entertained during the evening by Mesdames Slocum and Howard Warner, who gave in moving pictures views of their trip abroad this summer much to the delight of every one present.

Dainty refreshments were served and good nights said and again may we say—

Happy have we met
Happy have we been
Happy may we part
Happy meet again—and
Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Crossman for their kind hospitality.

JUBILEE QUARTET IS WELL RECEIVED AT THE FARMINGTON M. E. CHURCH

The congregation that assembled in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening to hear the Negro quartet sing, were well repaid. The songs and melodies of this race of people have a marked spiritual content and a religious fervor that is very gratifying to Christians in general. The program was not too long and each number was well rendered.—N. H. Power.
