State Events Varied

Golombki and chicken, Danish sconegard, cherries, strawberries, blueberries and the largest coffee break in the world are just a few of the tasty delicacies featured in the Michigan Calendar of Events for July. The calendar, compiled and published by the Michigan Tourist Council, lists some 78 special events and festivals to be held in Michigan during the month. The fun-packed celebrations include a variety of events ranging from International Days at South St. Marie, early in July, to the Traverse City Antique Show, July 31. A tourist with the time and inclination could spend each day in July attending a special occasion or festival in Michigan, according to the council. At the end of the month he would have been exposed to some mighty fancy eating, an abundance of culture, viewing more queens than can be found at a royal wedding, singing, dancing and a variety of action-packed fun. Fishermen are offered challenging contests at the National Trout-Arma at Baldwin, July 25-27. The Steam Races, Hastings, July 28-28, hosts travelers who thrill to the sound and smell of steam engines and implements. The largest coffee break in the world is listed as one of the features of the Alpine Festival at Gaylord, July 17-20. Golombki, a Polish dish made of ground beef and rice in a cabbage leaf, is served at the St. Nicholas Festival at Pellston, July 21. Beauty is in evidence on the Michigan scene also. According to the events calendar, many queens will be chosen at numerous beauty pageants throughout the state, and more than 11 art and flower shows are listed. Free copies of the calendar and other Michigan vacation planning information can be obtained by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, Michigan, 48926.
