Cost More To Exist In Florida

ATLANTA, Ga. -- A federal survey revealed that couples contemplating retirement would be better off moneywise in parts of the sunny South other than Florida.

Since the fall of 1966 when budget costs were assessed, the cost of living has risen 4.7 per cent.

The seven metropolitan areas checked and yearly cost per couple were: Nashville, Tenn., $3,721; Baker Ridge, La., $3,486; Atlanta, $3,581; Austin, Tex., $3,534; Dallas, Tex., $3,639; Houston, Tex., $3,628; and Orlando, Fla., $3,688.

St. Petersburg, Fla., often referred to as the mecca for retirees who flee south, was not included in the survey.

In conclusion, the survey showed that the same type budget in each of the southern areas costs less than the national average of $3,869 and less than any of 32 other areas studied.

Networks Ready For Conventions

Competition between the two major television networks will reach an all-time high during the national presidential convention.

CBS and NBC expect to spend about $5 million each on their full-time coverage of each convention. ABC, for fiscal reasons, will have regular entertainment programs until 9:30 to 11 p.m. summaries.

NBC will be back with the 1964 candidate team of Huntley-Brinkley, John Chancellor, Sander Vanocur, Edwin Newman, Frank McGee, Jack Perkins and Douglas Kiker will back them up, tracking candidates and covering the convention floor.

Walter Cronkite will again head the CBS contingent. Roger Mudd and Eric Sevareid will share a studio. Mike Wallace, Harry Reasoner, Theodore H. White and Art Buchwald will round out the "big name" CBS reporters.

ABC's new format of analysis, comment and video-taped highlights will be headed by Howard K. Smith. Correspondents include William H. Lawrence, John Scall, Joseph C. Harsch, Bob Young and Frank Reynolds. Gore Vidal and William F. Buckley Jr. will be on hand for nightly debates or discussions.

With over 20 million color TV sets now in American homes, there will be the first conventions broadcast in color. Each network has permission to use three portable color cameras on the convention floor.

Each has been issued about 700 passes for personnel involved in the broadcasts.

NBC topped the ratings for the 1964 conventions. CBS will counter the Huntley-Brinkley attraction with the Cronkite-Mudd-Sevareid threesome. ABC may come up a winner with the entertainment-plus coverage package.

Television has brought about many changes since its first invention in 1925. It ended the era of the old-time, long-winded perspiring, shirt-sleeved orator. The parties now caution their delegates to shorten their speeches, control their gestures and look interested.
