It was the ONLY WAY It could happen, , , the Tigers
rallying to win the World Serles of baseball,
All season the Tigers had been coming back,
From April to September the Tigers were staging raillies to win,

Forty times they won in the late innings, when they either trailed or were tied.

It was no different in the World Series.

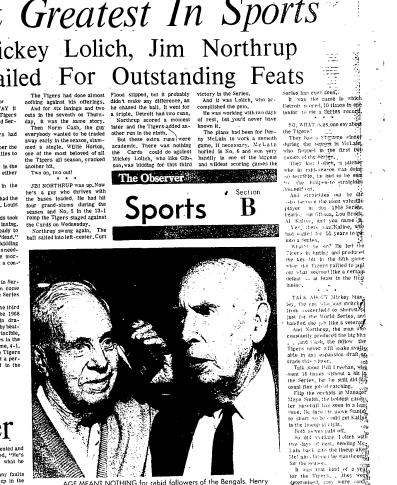

The St. Louis Cards had the Tigers on the ropes, St. Louis led three zames to one.

Tigers on the ropes, St. Louis led three games to one. In game No. 4 the Cards took a 3-0 lead in the first linding. The experts were ready to write the Tigers off as "dead." They were making kidding remarks about the Tigers needing the services of the mortuary operators holding a convention in Detroit.

ONLY TWICE before in Ser-

ONLY TWICE before in Ser-ies history had a team come from a 1-3 deficit in the Series to win it all.

The Tigers became the third when they sewed up the 1908 World Championship in dra-matite fashion Thursday by the and this Card teammates in the seventh and deciding game, 4-1. Gibson had beaten the Tigers wice before, He had set a per-sonal strikeout record in the Series.

AGE MEANT NOTHING for rabid followers of the Bengals. Henry Brown, 82, and John Blake, 94, both of Redford Township, had their ears glued to a transistor radio during the championship game.

Mayo Smith Stands As Baseball's Top Gambler

wrong, for Naline has been the man who came through in the clutch.
Even Mayo's other moves in the series have taken the fans by supprise.
What other manager would have left Mickey Lolich, light batting pitcher, bat for himself to lead off an inning late in the game with the team one run behind?

the game with the usan on --behind?
Mayo did just that in the seventh inning of the fifth game and Mickey responded with a single that started the winning rally. And whose bat was it that
