

New Cherry Recipes From Fete

By ELLY

Since 1968 when the National Cherry Festival first requested Michigan women to send favorite cherry recipes for use in festival publications and by food editors, hundreds of delicious recipes for cherry dishes have been received by the festival office in Traverse City.

It is estimated that these recipes have reached 125,000 via festival publications alone and approximately 12 million through newspapers, radio and TV. Additionally many, many more individual recipes are mailed on request by the National Cherry Festival.

Once again Michigan women - and men - are being asked to assist in this promotion of cherries, a product important to the economy of the state. Cherry recipes should be sent to National Cherry Festival, P.O. Box 141, Traverse City, Michigan 49684.

Mrs. Dorothy Walkmeyer, executive director of the festival, says that each recipe will be acknowledged and donors whose recipes appear in the National Cherry Festival material will receive copies. Credits are also given when the recipes are distributed by mail or to media.

CHERRY FESTIVAL BREAD

- 1 c. drained, halved maraschino cherries.
- 1/2 c. coarsely chopped walnut meats
- 1 T. grated orange peel
- 1/2 c. milk

- 3 T. melted margarine
- 2 1/2 c. flour
- 1/4 c. sugar
- 1/4 c. baking powder
- 1/2 t. baking soda
- 1/4 t. salt

Use half cup of the flour to coat the walnuts, orange peel, then the cherries. Mix all well. Sift rest of dry ingredients. Mix all at once with rest of moist ingredients, adding nuts, orange peel and cherries last, folding in. Spoon into three No. 2 round cans buttered and floured. Bake in a 350-degree oven for one hour. Test with a straw. Let stand five minutes on rack. Invert cans and gently shake out; cool on rack.

"Keep well if kept from husbands and children."

Mrs. Ora Austin, Traverse City.
