Thurston Beats Franklin, 2-1

If what the experts contended means much, it looks now like Thurston High will be the team to beat for the Northwest Suburban League baseball title.

The preseason ratings favored Thurston and Franklin and they were matched in Monday's opening league game.

Thurston won in a 2-1 thriller as Steve Kreager bested Tony Kaseta.

KREAGER ALLOWED two hits, struck out 12 and walked three. Kaseta scattered seven hits, struck out seven and walked one.

Thurston scored in the first inning when Dennis Poppenger singled, stole second and came around on Don Murdock's single. Then in the sixth, Bob Graustein doubled after Murdock singled.

The Franklin run resulted from a single by Gar Frantz, walks to Paul Sopsich and Rob Hollandsworth and an error.

JOHN GLENN and North Farmington were winners in the other Northwest openers. Glenn went an extra inning before scoring three times in the eighth to down Birmingham, 6-3, and North Farmington slipped past Oak Park, 5-4.

Daryl Demaray went the route for Glenn. John Dickson, the losing pitcher, whiffed nine.

Glenn scored in the first on a single by Mike Borders, a walk and an error and then two more in the third when Demaray singled and David Barrows and Roger Sanders followed with triples.

Groves pushed over two in the second on an error and hits by Harold Kuhn and Drew Jackson and tied it in the fourth on singles by Jackman and Jack Lamb with a walk in between.

In the eighth, two errors and hits by Gary Pack and Mark Szemsky produced three runs for Glenn.

John White buried the win for North Farmington as he gave up seven hits and fanned five.

A homer by Mike Collar in the third got the Raiders on the scoreboard. Then in the fourth they scored three times when Ron Garneau and Arnie Kahkonen singled and Dan Dellinger doubled for two runs. Two walks and an error admitted the third run of the inning.

Dellinger's double followed a single by Garneau in the fifth and produced what proved to be the winning run.
