"OUR GANG" COMEDY STARS OF MOVIE FAME APPEAR AT THE TEMPLE THEATRE

Mickey Daniels and Peggy Eames, known far and wide as "Mickey" and "Peggy" the kid stars of "Our Gang" comedies fame, have left the screen and are touring Keith-Albee vaudeville for a brief period and will headline the bill at B. F. Keith's Temple Theatre starting Sunday June 19. Mickey is the freckled kid comedian of these famous pictures and Peggy is the youthful leading lady. They and the rest of their gang have actually made millions laugh with their mischievous antics. Their local appearance in a skit entitled "The Day Off" will give screen fans an opportunity to see them in real life. Others billed: Ruth Budd, "The Girl With the Smile," late feature of Ziegfeld's Midnight Frolic; Arthur Deagon and Company; George Yeoman and Lizzie in their novelty skit; Laura Ormsbee, with Hal Findlay at the piano in "Moments of Mellow"; Kola and Sylvia in a colorful dance revue called "Happy Moments of Dancing and Piano"; Jim Jam Jems, a trio of comedy gymnasts offer "Gymcracks of Clownland"; other Keith-Albee vaudeville and the new screen subjects.

African natives capture monkeys by setting out rum, on which the monkeys get helplessly drunk. Over here the police don't have to even set out the rum.
A freak baby born at Walsall, Eng., which lived only a few hours, was found to have no brain. Over here we call 'em sheiks.
