

COUNTY CRIPPLED CHILD SOCIETY MEETS TUESDAY

The annual meeting of the Oakland County Chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children will be held at the First Methodist Church, corner of East Maple avenue and Henrietta street, next Tuesday evening, July 12 at eight o'clock.

At this meeting, the first since the County organization became an integral part of the State Society, is held for the purpose of electing new directors and officers and the hearing of reports covering activities during the past year. Approximately 3,000 citizens of Oakland County are members of the County Chapter, as the result of a membership drive staged Thanksgiving week of last year. The members of the County Society are invited to attend the meeting next Tuesday night at Birmingham.

What Michigan Has Done

Few states have banking laws as strict as has the State of Michigan.

Few states are as rigid in their enforcement. You are fortunate in having in this community a bank which is operated under these laws.

The Peoples State Bank is a strong bank. Strong because it is supervised by the State of Michigan. Strong because of its ample capital and surplus, strong because of the conservative management of its present officers.

It's a good bank for you.
