Girl Scout participates in conference

Ellen Moran, a 11th grader from Farmington, spent a weekend in Philadelphia this summer at the first national Girl Scout conference for teenagers called "Together We Stand."

She joined more than 800 girls from across the nation on the University of Pennsylvania campus. Here the girls attended workshops on a variety of topics designed to help them prepare for the '90s.

Relationships, college, careers, fitness, entertainment, and community service were some of the subjects the girls investigated together. "Together We Stand" is a part of a special travel program sponsored by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Girls who participate in this program are selected from a field of applicants nationwide on the basis of Girl Scout experience and personal interview.

Make a wreath

The First Presbyterian Church of Farmington will sponsor a herbal wreath workshop at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 3, 9:30 a.m. Friday, Oct. 4, or 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 5. The workshop will be held at the church, 26165 Farmington Road, and conducted by Ruth McKinnon.

The fee of $20 covers instruction, wreath form, pins, and all the herbal materials needed to complete a large wreath. McKinnon will also feature other items showing the use of herbs in home decoration. For those who arrive 15 minutes before class time, a demonstration in ribbon bow-making is planned.

For reservations or more information, call Ruth McKinnon at 681-4911.

Meeting looks at health care

Lisa Mulcrone, aide to U.S. Sen. Donald Riegle, will preview Riegle's proposed health care bill at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 7, in the Farmington Library, Liberty at State. The presentation is part of a meeting of the Farmington Chapter of the Older Women's League.

Riegle's proposal would reform the nation's health care system by making health insurance coverage available to all citizens while installing a wide-ranging cost control system.

The meeting is open to the public and there is no charge. Guests should make reservations with Virginia Nicoll at 474-3094.

Volunteers wanted

Volunteers are needed by the American Cancer Society for the 100 Grand Challenge beginning Nov. 2. Volunteers will collect donations and distribute lapel pins with the seven signs of cancer and select sites including department, retail and grocery stores.

To volunteer a couple of hours of time in the one-week campaign, call the Oakland county unit of the American Cancer Society at 557-5353.
