This week's question:

If you could have a private conversation with Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, what would you tell him?

We asked this question at the Crossroads A&W in Farmington.

"I think he runs the city very poorly. I'd tell him he should resign."
— Jim Gogola
Farmington Hills

"I'd tell him he should have retired 12 years ago. He makes police officers and fire fighters retire at age 60."
— Frank Tala
(retired Detroit firefighter)
Livonia

"I'd ask him what the heck he was doing to keep the stadium downtown."
— Bill Gottschalk
Farmington Hills

"I'd tell him it was time to retire."
— Alice Joshi
Bloomfield Hills

"I'd tell him to keep up the good fight."
— Jerry Mitchell
Detroit

"I'd tell him that I respect him... but I'd also tell him that he blames the Whitneys (whites) too much for the bad things that happen to him."
— Harry Ouedian

recreation news

Each week, the Recreation Division of the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services presents a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column.

For further information regarding programs, please call the recreation office at 473-9379. Pre-registration is required for most activities.

For matters regarding city council agenda items, call the city's Newsline at 476-3838.

● HALLOWEEN HAUNTED WALK

The Recreation Division will host its fourth annual Halloween Haunted Walk Friday-Saturday, Oct. 25-26, at Heritage Park. We are looking for groups, organizations or individuals who would be interested in creating a station on the trails to provide the chilling effect of the spirit of Halloween. If you or your group/organization are Interested, call Dave Justus at 473-9380.

● MOTHER AND SON DANCE

A corsage for Mom, a boutonniere for son and a memorable picture for both are part of this special evening 7-8:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 18, in the formal dining room at Mercy Center. Music for dancing by a disc jockey and refreshments are also part of the evening festivities. Pre-registration deadline is Oct. 4 or until the maximum of 300 is reached. Fee is $10 per couple and $5 for each additional son.

● STAR GAZING

Take a tour of the fall night skies. You'll learn how to find your way around the stars and how they were created. Presentations will include videotapes, slides lectures and personal observation, weather permitting. The class will be held at the Visitor Center in Heritage Park 7:30-9:30 p.m. Oct. 18. Pre-registration is $4 per person or $12 per family of four or more.

● PARKEY'S SERIES

Parkey the Panda invites children ages 5-10 to join him for a special Halloween event called "Ghost & Goblin Goodies." Children will create Halloween crafts and hear a story or two. The event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 10-11:30 a.m. at the Visitor Center in Heritage Park. Remember to wear your costume. Pre-registration is required.
