

Goodfellows plan holiday drive

Goodfellows need help

Again this year, the Farmington Area Goodfellows need your support to help provide a holiday lift to needy children and less fortunate elderly residents in Farmington and Farmington Hills.

With the money donated, the Goodfellows deliver baskets of joy typically containing canned foods and knits. Each includes gift certificates redeemable for fresh food and winter clothing. Toys, games, dolls and children's clothing are included when appropriate.

Family makeup dictates the size and content of each basket. Potential recipients must document need. Special dietary requests are honored when practical.

Cash donations come back to the community. About the only things the Goodfellows have to buy are stamps to mail solicitation letters and boxes to make into baskets. Volunteers are the Goodfellows' backbone.

Donations bring cheer to needy

Tupper said many Farmington-area residents "just don't know" how many of their neighbors are in need of help. He said the need has spread throughout the community, from those who have little to others who were doing fine but have lost jobs and family income.

The Goodfellows drive links numerous community groups and programs, including Head Start, Neighborhood House, the Farmington Public School District, the cities of Farmington and Farmington Hills, Toys for Tots and many local churches, service clubs and businesses.

And they all take it seriously. The 1990 Jungle Bell Award for the organization that collected the most money during the group's annual Goodfellow Newspaper Sale went to the Farmington Hills Volunteer Firefighters, who collected more than $10,000. This year, Tupper said, the various fire stations are planning to compete and the winning station will display a "traveling trophy" for the year.

ALSO IN 1990, the Sleigh Bell Award was given to Chuck Robertson and his helpers from Robertson Brothers Pools in West Bloomfield, who donate truck service to deliver holiday baskets. Tupper said Goodfellow volunteers will deliver holiday baskets on Saturday, Dec. 14.

Residents wishing to help the Goodfellows can:

- Bring canned goods to the Village Commons shopping center, north off Grand River at the east end of downtown Farmington, between Nov. 25 and Dec. 14, where volunteers will be sorting food into baskets.

Call the chamber and donate time for the Goodfellows newspaper sale or holiday drive by calling 474-3440.

For the needy, Tupper said the non-perishable food items are needed more than toys, which are handed well through other community agencies.

- Send a check to the Farmington Area Goodfellows, c/o Farmington/Farmington Hills Chamber of Commerce, 33411 Grand River, Farmington, 48335.

- Call the chamber and donate time for either the newspaper sale or holiday drive by calling 474-3440.

Farmington-area trick-or-treaters will be coming home with more than just candy this Halloween. It is hoped that the above flyer, put out by the League of Women Voters of the Oakland Area and the Committee to Increase Voter Participation in Farmington Hills, will be clipped and given to young ghosts and goblins along with the goodies.
