Seminar focuses on photos

A photography seminar sponsored by Schoolcraft College will feature nationally known, award-winning photojournalist Tony Spina.

The audience participation seminar, open to the public, will take place 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9, on the campus, 18600 Haggerty in Livonia. Fee is $50, including lunch. For information, call the college at 462-4448.

Registration is limited. Those interested should sign up as soon as possible.

Spina, Detroit Free Press chief photographer emeritus, was honored recently by Michigan Artisan as Michigan Artist of the Year.

Spina will discuss composition, what makes a good photograph, film, the spectrum of cameras and camera equipment and lighting, among other topics.
