

recreation news

Each week, the Recreation Division of the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services presents a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column.

For further information regarding programs, please call the recreation office at 473-9570. Pre-registration is required for most activities.

For matters regarding city council agenda items, call the city's Newsline at 476-3838.

● YOUTH BASKETBALL REGISTRATION

Registration is being accepted for boys in grades 4-8 and girls in grades 4-6 at the Recreation office. Teams are formed by geographic location and grade level. Instructional clinics will be held in December with an eight-game schedule beginning in January. Registration deadline is Nov. 22. Fee is $20.

● THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE

On Thursday, Nov. 28, for all those who love a parade, regardless of age, a bus will be leaving at 8 a.m. to downtown Detroit to view the Thanksgiving Day Parade. You will return at 12:30 p.m. Pre-registration is required at the Recreation office. Fee is $4 per person. Children 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

● WINTER SPORTS EQUIPMENT SALE

On Saturday, Dec. 7, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at East Middle School, 25000 Middlebelt, you will have the opportunity to purchase or sell used winter equipment. Items include skates, downhill and cross-country skis and boots, clothing, sleds and more. Equipment configuration for registering items to be sold will be 5:30-8:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 6.

● HANDICRAFT FESTIVAL

A Holiday Handicraft Festival sponsored by the Farmington Hills Senior Adult Program from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15 at the Senior Adult Center, 28800 11 Mile, Gate 4. Enter through Door C. Rental space for senior crafts is available at $3 per space. Call 473-1854 for information.

● NEW YORK, NEW YORK

New York's offerings are unlimited. Shop till you drop, visit the museums, points of interest or a combination of the three on this one-day jet-setting trip to the Big Apple. Day includes round-trip air transportation and transfers from Farmington Hills. The trip will leave early Thursday, Dec. 5. Fee is $185 per person and reservation deadline is Nov. 8.

● DOWNHILL SKIING

Students in grades 4-12 can enjoy a night of skiing at Mount Brighton on Friday evenings. Buses leave designated sites throughout the city at 4:30 p.m. and return approximately 10 p.m. There are three two-week sessions and one one-week session scheduled. The first session is scheduled for Jan. 10 and 17. Fee is $32 per two-week session and does not include $8 rental fee. Pre-registration is required and some of the two-week sessions are already filled.

We need input from our readers

We want to know more about you.

In a move to bring your hometown newspaper even closer to the community, the Farmington Observer is seeking volunteers for its community participation team.

Those chosen will serve for six months after which time a new group of residents will be selected. The team will meet with the newspaper staff a minimum of once a month.

We want to hear from you on how you feel about your community, what are your interests and what concerns you and your neighbors share in this rapidly changing world.

To launch this process we need you to fill out the accompanying coupon, giving us some background on interests. We are looking for diversity on our team - people of all ages, incomes and interests are urged to apply.

Those people who are not chosen for the first group will be kept on file for future reference.

So send in your coupon today. We look forward to meeting you.

PROVIDENCE CENTER

Winning the battle against cancer.

The Lung Cancer Working Group: one of many ways we're battling cancer

At the Providence Cancer Center, we know that prompt diagnosis and treatment increases the chances of beating cancer. And that's the key to the Providence Lung Cancer Working Group. This unique team approach brings together a group of cancer specialists to share expertise and reach a consensus on the best treatment plan for the patient. The Working Group allows patients to begin treatment quickly, so they can feel in control of the disease right away.

Providence Cancer Center: advanced technology

Our comprehensive treatment program includes fighting cancer with radiation, surgery and chemotherapy.

- Our affiliation with the Southwest Oncology Group gives us access to the latest research, drugs and treatment programs.
- Our Center's radiation oncology department, affiliated with the University of Michigan, is one of just a few programs worldwide to use a three-dimensional treatment planning technology that provides today's most accurate and effective targeting of tumors.

Providence Cancer Center: compassion and caring

At the Providence Cancer Center, we bring compassion and caring to our patients in a private setting. The cancer specialists at our Center work as a team to provide personal attention and total patient care—from satisfying your need for information to offering support groups.

Please call our Cancer InfoLine for answers to any questions you have about the disease. Call 424-3400. The information is free, but the knowledge is priceless.
