scripture study classes, choir and community service activities. Sarah is top-notch academically and she has a great sense of humor.

MONEY DONATED
Farmington Public Schools was one of 10 school districts in southeastern Michigan honored by the Japanese Society of Detroit for supporting the Japanese community through educational and cultural programs.

The society donated $1,500 to the Farmington, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Inlay City, Novi, Rochester, Southfield, Troy, Walled Lake and West Bloomfield districts. The 10 districts are recognized by the society as those with large Japanese enrollments.

The society makes financial contributions to selected school districts twice each year in appreciation for their work. Ten other districts were honored in May.

● CRAFTS FAIR

The North Farmington High School Bank and Orchestra Boosters are hosting a Winter Arts and Crafts Fair on Nov. 23, where more than 70 artists will exhibit a variety of work. The juried show has a $1 admission and will be held at the high school on 13 Mile just east of Farmington Road from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. All proceeds will go to benefit the band and orchestra program.

● MUSIC SALE

The Farmington Public School District is hosting a Used Instrument Sale 7-8:30 p.m. Dec. 3 in the East Middle School cafeteria. The school is on Middlebelt between 10 Mile and 11 Mile roads. The sale is open to anyone wishing to buy or sell a band or orchestra instrument, metronomes, music stands and other music items. All sales are between buyer and seller. For further information, call the music education department at 489-3412.

● LEADERS CONFERENCE

Jill Wright of Farmington Hills recently attended the National Young Leaders Conference from Nov. 5-10 in Washington, D.C.

The Merry High School student was chosen because of her academic achievement, leadership and citizenship. She was among 350 outstanding high school students from across the nation to attend the conference, sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council.

She met with U.S. senators and representatives and visited the diplomatic embassies of other countries. She also participated in a mock congress where the issue of gun control was discussed.

● STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Merry High School students were busy over the summer months, doing a variety of activities, according to information from the school.

Sangeeta Nalk returned to her native India over the summer to visit relatives. Rita Jindal also visited India. Sandy Boyd volunteered at the Farmington Community Center working in day camps for children. Karuna Mantena spent six weeks in New York attending upper level classes at Columbia University. Nimra Paddipaty took an upper level college class in Russian History at U-M Dearborn.

The Michigan Interfaith Coalition on Central American Human Rights annual conference on "The Cost of Conquest" was attended by Molly Moloney, Karuna Mantena and Nimra Paddipaty.

Abby Ryder attended journalism workshops at Ball State University, where she won the Best Business Communications award.
