The ultimate jewelry chest designed by a woman for a woman. The Jewelry Organizer by Jestanto ($250) holds about 100 pairs of earrings (specify clip or pierced) on slim acrylic panels, plus five-dozen necklaces, rings and bracelets. Store pins and brooches in the padded velvet-lined doors. The four-color organizer comes in flat black, white almond and whitewashed oak. Designed to mount on the wall or sit on the counter. By special order at Ceci's, The Boardwalk, West Bloomfield.

Fun outerwear for the young at heart. From left, Alesha Ockerman of Garden City wears a five-piece wool ensemble including swing coat, fringed shawl, beret, mini skirt and sweater, all in cinnamon ($458), Sizes 7-14. Lauren Hays of West Bloomfield wears a wool, cinnamon-colored coat with shawl collar. Tassels trim the pocket and shoulder ($310), Sizes 4-6. Matching beret ($34). Both by Francoise Bouthiller. At Loretta Loren, Bloomfield Plaza, Bloomfield Hills.

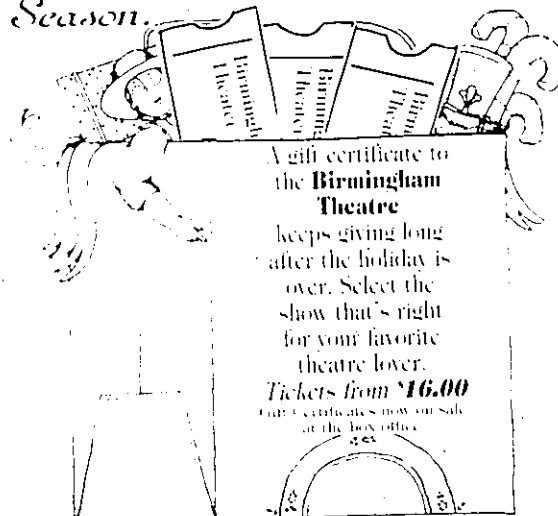

Some people try to compare us with other toy stores.

There are a lot of reasons why you can't begin to compare us to other toy stores. Like being voted the best toy store by Monthly Detroit because of our "unbelievably extensive selection" from $5 to $500. Most of our toys, games, dolls, stuffed animals and crafts cannot be found in the mass merchandise toy stores. Come in and see us at 163 West Maple in downtown Birmingham or call 646-5550. No matter what the age, you can count on us to help you find the perfect toy for everyone on your holiday gift list.
