Oakland Community College and the University of Michigan-Dearborn recently reaffirmed a long-standing informal articulation agreement between the two institutions, by formally entering into a "2+" degree program.

Students who have completed an associate degree at OCC may transfer their earned credits toward the bachelor of general studies degree offered by UM-D.

The "2+" name is derived from the average two-year stay at each institution that a student pursuing this degree will experience.

By signing a formal agreement, UM-D Chancellor Blenda J. Wilson and OCC Chancellor Patsy J. Fulton stressed that they were not inaugurating a new program but rather rededicating their efforts to serving students.

"It's a pleasure to formalize a procedure that enables our students to pursue education at an institution of UM-D's caliber, once they've completed studies with us," Fulton said.

"Agreements such as these, which encourage both traditional and non-traditional students, underscore the growing awareness that education is not only a life-long process but a life-long need."

Further information on the "2+" program is available from the admissions offices at UM-D (593-5100) or OCC (540-1549).

Suburban school retirees meet

The Suburban Association of Retired School Personnel will meet Tuesday, Dec. 10 at Farina's Reception Hall, 2485 Coolidge Road, Berkeley.

Social Hour is 11 a.m. with lunch at noon. There will be musical entertainment featuring a Christmas theme. Sue Form and Mercy Travis will bring dulcimers for a Victorian program.

Cost for lunch and program is $7.50. For reservations, call 546-5345.

Men, if you're about to turn 18, it's time to register with Selective Service at any U.S. Post Office.

It's quick. It's easy.
And it's the law.

Patsy J. Fulton, left, chancellor of Oakland Community College, and Blenda J. Wilson, chancellor of the University of Michigan at Dearborn, sign documents formalizing the "2 plus 2" agreement between the two schools. The agreement enhances opportunities for students who complete two years of approved study at OCC to transfer to UM-D. Witnessing the signing are, from the left, John Blom of OCC, Maurice McCall, Robert Simpson, James Foster and Donna McKinley, all of UM-D.
