IT'S TIME TO ADOPT THE TRUE SPIRIT OF THE HOLIDAYS

Holiday time is again upon us, as the culmination of a year that was marked by war and in many cases, financial hardship caused by the recession. Nonetheless, regardless of our situation or our faith, it's time to put those distressing things behind us and renew the true spirit of the season: getting in touch with friends and loved ones, mending quarrels, and being kinder and more patient even with strangers. Whether you decorate your home with Christmas lights or Chanukah candles, it will seem a lot brighter if you are at peace with the world and with yourself. As busy as you are at this time, take the time to attend your House of Worship for a refresher course in the true meaning of the holiday spirit. It's love and tolerance, for now and all the other times of the year.
Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson
