Fresh faces

Oakland County board elects Crake, Johnson

Republican county commissioners bypassed experience and turned to relatively fresh faces this week when nominating leaders for 1992. They also bounced three Demo-crats and a Republican from com-puting assignments.

crats and a Republican from com-mittee assignments. At a caucs Tuesday, Republicans selected Larry Crake board chair-man and Ruth Johnson vice chair-woman. Both were selected over highly regarded opponents who have been on the board longer. Crake, who has been on the board for five years, was elected over G. William Caddell of Walled Lake, who has been on the board for 13
