At this will take place at almost carp bowling content to a seria. The format will be basically the same ever-twhere with some variations. Mirror couples bowling for prise moory using the moonlight and/or "NO Tap" accorting, where nine pines is accred as a strike.

A hot buffet and drinks might or might not be included, depending on the programs and price. Rates will vary de-pending on the cash prize list, "ranging the entry fee, the higher cash prize list. This can be a wooderful way to wel-come the New Year. If you haven't al-ready signed up, a word of warning, on't wait too long as the centers have limited space, and the lists are being filled rapidly.

Check with your favorite bowling center, since they usually have a first program.

North, Harrison coaches honored

Farmington Harrison's John Herrington and North Farmington's Jim O'Carry received post-eason coaching honors from the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association. Herrington was named coach of the year in Class BB, and O'Leary was named the top coach in Class A Region II.

Herrington took the Hawks to their fourth consecutive Western Lakes Activities Association title, another 13-0 season and the Class BB another 13-0 season and the Class BB champlonship.

Harrison has won five state titles under Herrington, who has a 188-43-11 n22 seasons at the school.

O'Leary's North team gave the Hawks their toughest game of the season, falling 20-14 in overtime in a showdown for the WLAA championship. It was the first meeting between the teams in five years.

The Raiders also made the playoffs for the second time, losing in the first round to Ypsilanti. North finished 8-4 but the difference in each of the defeats — the Raiders also played Pontine Northern and South Lyon — was just a touchdown. Ypsilanti and South Lyon ever seminalists in the Class A playor when you're selected by your peers." O'Leary said. "We played as good a schedule as anybody. Under the circumstances, I'm proud of (the record). There was never a game we didn't have a chance, and you can't sak any more of your kids.

"Our kids have such great class, and we got a lot of comments from other coaches about that. If you can play great football and you're kids can play with great class, what more can you ask?"

Jim O'Leary

O'Leary has a 55-20 record in nine years as the North warstly coach. Ite was previously a warstly astistant for nine seasons and coached the JV team of 1985-74.

Balders won two Northwest Subschan League titles under O'Leary in 1883 and '84. North won the Lake D'Ustion crown outright' for the first time this year after finiabiling in a three-way tie in 1988 and 88.

The Hawks, members of the rugged WLAA, linished the dual meet season at only 3-12 but managed a Class B district championship.
The most promising returnee is David Prusimski, a 140-pound sentor who was 16-13 and a league runner-up. The only other wrestler with a 500 record returning is two-lime state qualifier Tom James, a 145-pound senior who was 7-6. Also back are James Willer, a 125-pound senior who was 10-12, and Eric Brown, a 145-pound senior who was 3-14. As for newcomers, second-year coach Darrell Tharnish looks for help from 171-pound junior Dave Gloetaner and 125-pound junior Doug Whilten.

Doug Whilten.
The Hawks will miss Gary Devine and Todd Lytwynick, a pair of league champions and state qualiflers who graduated. Devine was 269 last year at 140 pounds and Lytwynick was 24-7 at 189.

"We are a very young team, hav-ing over 20 freshmen or sophomores on the roster," Tharnish said. "Many
