

HELP YOUR HOUSE OF WORSHIP, WHICH HAS GIVEN YOU HELP

If you've been attending your House of Worship regularly, it's because you had some good reasons for doing so. You have received God's blessings and guidance there, and perhaps you have been given some advice and comfort by your clergyman at a time when you needed it most. Now you should consider doing something in return for these benefits, if you haven't been doing it already. There are many helpful services you can perform, according to your talents and physical ability. Even such simple acts as making phone calls, typing announcements for the bulletin, or taking a turn watching the children in the nursery can be of great value. So do whatever you can to help your House of Worship, remembering all the times that it has been helpful to you.

Sometimes give your services for nothing, calling to mind a previous benefaction.
