

Bride's Father Designs Rings

MRS. CHARLES D. FIFIELD
(Ruth Ann Wescott)

Ruth Ann Wescott and Charles D. Fifield exchanged rings designed and made by the bride's father when they were united in marriage May 11 in the First United Methodist Church of Ypsilanti.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Wescott of Ypsilanti. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fifield of Redford Township, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Kenneth Callis officiated and the bride's father, an associate professor of art at Eastern Michigan University gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE'S white organza gown featured daisy chain venise lace at the neckline and a wateau train attached by an organza bow. A headpiece of organza and flowers held her elbow-length illusion veil, and she carried daisies and stephanotis.

Margaret Stoner, as maid of honor, wore a deep pink gown with daisy trim on lace at the neckline and on the bodice. The bridesmaids, Mrs. John Cicchelli, Judith Leih' and Connie Jackson, wore similar gowns in a lighter shade of pink. Also in light pink was the junior bridesmaid, Charlotte Jackson.

Dennis Fifield was best man and the ushers were John Fifield, Jack Wescott and William Wescott.

MRS. WESCOTT wore aqua shantung and Mrs. Fifield was in champagne lace over shantung for the wedding and reception for 250 guests in the church's fellowship hall.

After a honeymoon in Western Michigan, the couple will live in Redford Township where the new Mrs. Fifield is a speech correction teacher in Redford Union Schools. She is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and a member of Sigma Nu sorority. Her husband attended Western Michigan University and was president of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Double-Ring Rites Unite Plymouth Pair

A double-ring ceremony in First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth united Jill Christine Souder and Dennis Michael Roscoe in marriage May 15.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Souder of Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leonard Pytkas of Perry Street, Plymouth, and Douglas Roscoe of Rochester.

Dr. Henry J. Walch officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

organza gown with chantilly lace trim and a full-length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, carnations and baby's breath.

Her attendants wore long-sleeved gowns in an old-fashioned flower print with pink smoking at the sleeves and neckline. They carried carnations and roses.

Mrs. Kathy Dawn Klug of New York was matron of honor for her sister. Another sister, Mrs. Karen Ridgely of Ohio, and a cousin, Holly Hawke of Clarkston, Mich., were bridesmaids.

DICK KLUG was best man.

Seating the guests were Gary Ridgely, Eric Pytkas, Mark Roscoe, Lee Pytkas and Ralph Souder.

Tracey Hawke was flower girl and Jimmy Souder ring bearer.

Mrs. Souder selected a lime green coat and dress ensemble, and Mrs. Pytkas was in a peach dress and coat.

The dinner reception for 200 was held in the Mayflower Meetinghouse.

The couple will live in Plymouth. The new Mrs. Roscoe is a Schoolcraft Community College student and her husband attends Wayne State University.

Burcaws Wed In Grand Rapids

Kenneth C. Burcaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Burcaw of Ridgewood Avenue, Plymouth, claimed Barbara A. Fletcher as his bride in an evening ceremony Saturday, May 15, in St. Andrew Episcopal Church in Grand Rapids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Fletcher of Muskegon.

The Rev. Lester B. Thomas officiated, and a reception for 200 guests in The Homestead, Grand Rapids, followed the ceremony.

THE BRIDE wore an empire gown of sheer voile over satin, with seed pearls and rose lace applied on the bodice, sheer bouffant sleeves and train. Matching lace bordered her mantilla veil, and she carried a cascade of sweetheart roses.

Linda E. Fletcher, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mary Kay Dion of Spring Lake, Mich., and Mrs. Thomas Ardis of Muskegon. They wore red crepe pant-dresses with mid-vests of velvet brocade in a rose print of red, white and slate blue. Each carried two red roses.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore white double-breasted Edwardian frock coats with black lapels and black flare slacks. Their white ruffled shirts were piped in black.

Robert J. Burcaw was best man for his brother, and the ushers were David R. Sackett and Lon G. Hake, both of Plymouth.

Mrs. Fletcher wore a floor-length gown of heavenly blue lace, and Mrs. Burcaw's gown was pink shantung with lace trim.

The couple planned a wedding trip to Hawaii before returning to Garden City to make their home.

The new Mrs. Burcaw, a graduate of Michigan State University, is executive secretary to the controller of Ziegler-Osteopathic Hospital in Detroit. Her husband is a 1964 graduate of Plymouth High School and earned a degree in political science from Wayne State University. He is employed by Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Co.
